

Pictures & Presents

By Laura Berry

Harvest Kettle

Trailing Shadows

"Arriving at an old country inn, I pause, intrigued by the entrance way. On one side vibrant colours enhance a window's edge, as tangled flowers spill out over a planter's box.

Turning I glance down at the doorstep to find a welcoming display of harvest treasures. With the charm and character of the sunlit corner, I feel a sense of warmth that masks the coolness of the autumn day."

FRAMING SPECIAL
$50⁰⁰ each

LAURA BERRY was born in Ontario in 1960. A self-taught watercolourist, Laura now resides north of Toronto with her husband and three sons.

Her unique style was born from her love of the rural setting in which she has chosen to live and raise her family. This love is reflected in her subject matter.

124 MAIN ST. S. 877-7654
DOWNTOWN GEORGETOWN