

A garden wedding at the home of the bride's parents in Moffat, was the scene of a double ring ceremony which united Kathleen Michelle Hadley and Kelly Michael Ewing in marriage on July 10th. Rev. Bruce Underhill of Hamilton officiated. Marilyn Chinnery, of New Brunswick, sang several songs, including "The Wedding Song", a song she sang 30 years ago at the wedding of Michelle's parents. Marilyn was accompanied by Sarah Sabatinos of Brookville on the harp.

Monique Clare, sister of the bride, was matron of honour and best man was Jeff Ewing. Amanda Knaggs, Shelly Gilkinson, Marc Hoewing and Brad Caves were also in the wedding party.

Dennis Chadala, friend of the family, surprised everyone by having a helicopter arrive to take Kelly and Michelle to the reception which was held at Greystone Golf Club in Milton.

Kelly and Michelle spent their honeymoon relaxing in the Cayman Islands.

Magical win

"I would rather have people voluntarily come forward than chase them," Turner said. He noted that of 150,000 investigations last year, only 150 were successfully prosecuted for income tax evasion.

"We got the money from the rest. It got collected," he said.

Turner was appointed by Prime Minister Kim Campbell as Revenue Minister after the leadership convention. He said he spent two weeks studying his new responsibilities, and has been travelling across the country for a couple weeks, as well as holding town hall meetings in his own riding. He said there will be one in Halton Hills soon.

Turner said he hasn't had a holiday since January, and will likely keep working straight through until after the election is called. Soon he'll be back in the riding, he said.
