New Season about to Begin for ACTON CURLING

Come and visit the Acton Curling Club during our Open House Week of October the 12th to the 16th. We offer a variety of nights that you can choose to suit your curling experience or amount of fun you want to have.

We have Men's, Ladies' and Senior levels, and we will be starting a new Junior curling program.

Our membership fees remain at the same level as they have been for 3 years now. With each new curler that has not belonged to the club we will be offering a new broom with your paid membership.

Watch for our membership booths at the Fall Fairs and fill out an entry form for a Draw for One of 2 FREE Adult Memberships for 93/94 season.

Phone 853-0110 for more details. Don't spend another winter sitting indoors wondering what to do for some inexpensive fun and exercise.

CHINGUACOUSY GIRLS' MINOR SOFTBALL ASSOCIATION

Is presently looking to rebuild and restructure their existing Rep Program. In an effort to accomplish this, we require the following:

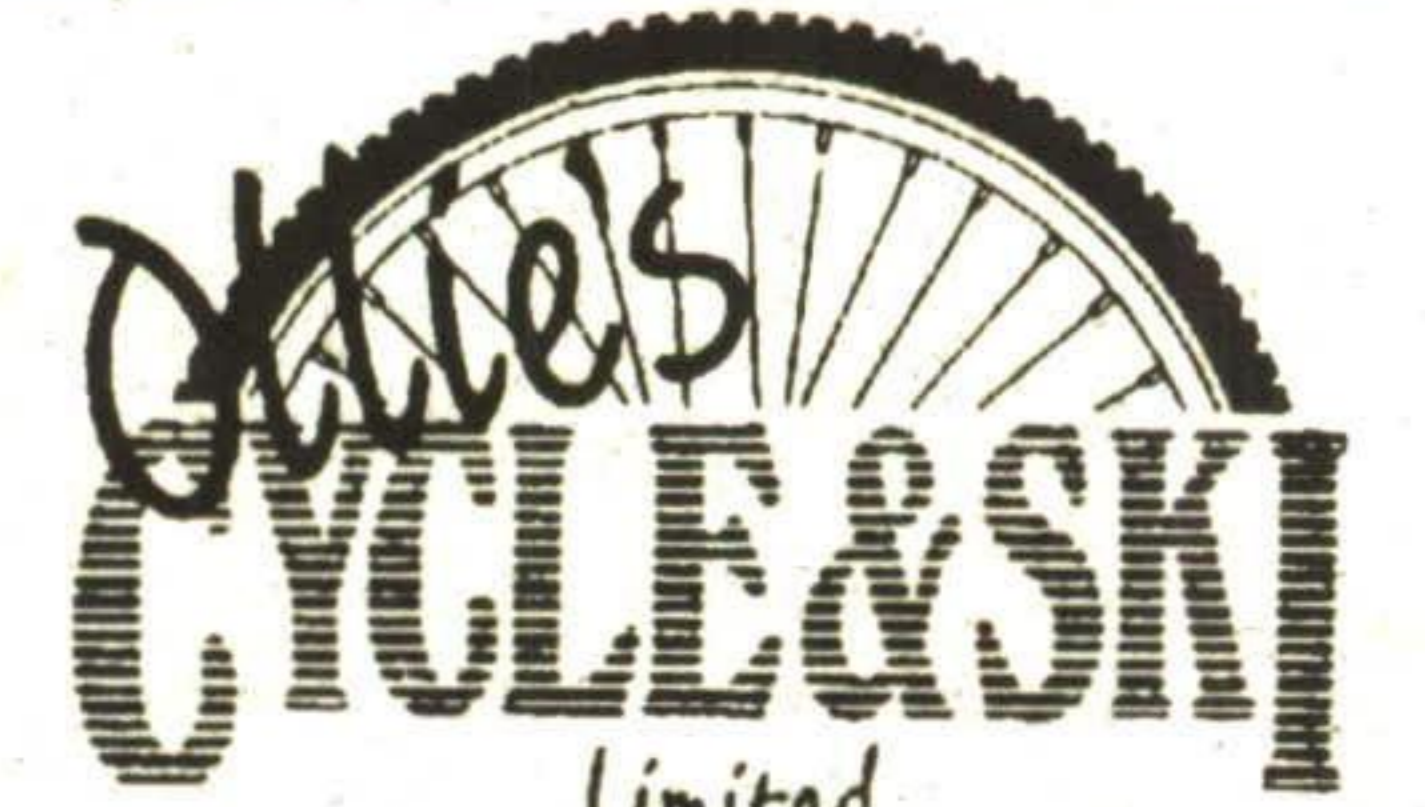

- Coaching Staff at all levels (Mite to Junior)
- Rep Players at all levels

CGMSA has been an established minor softball association in the community for approximately 28 years and has had many successful League Championship and Provincial Teams over the years.

All coaching applications must be received no later than midnight, September 15, 1993.
