UWC readies for fall

The University Women's Club of Georgetown, an affiliate of the Canadian Federation of University Women (C.F.U.W.), commences their 22nd season with a coffee and dessert reception at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, September 14 at George Kennedy Public School, Weber Dr., Georgetown.

If you are a woman holding an university degree and residing in Halton Hills please accept an invitation to attend and become acquainted with the club and this season's activities. The club present opportunities to promote education, to become involved in community affairs and to meet women who share a variety of interests.

Promotion of education in Halton Hills is a primary focus of the club which presents over $3,000 in scholarships to local students every year. This year's recipients will attend the reception to accept their scholarships. Funds are primarily raised at the annual Used Book and Toy Sale which is scheduled for April 23, 1994 at Knox Church.

The Georgetown Club is quite active in community affairs and has most recently assisted in the completion of a survey of public opinion for the Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Master Plan. Club members also observe town council meetings and sit on local committees of interest.

Club members may also participate in special interest groups examples being art tours, book clubs, gourmet cooking and preschool outings.

Guest speakers make presentation at monthly meetings which the public is encouraged to attend. Meeting will be held at 7:45 p.m. at George Kennedy Public School. This year's program is as follows: October 5, Finding our Foremother; November 2, Canadian Author's Night; January 4, Future Technology; February 1, Women in Wilderness; March 1, Reflections on Political Life and Discussion of Local Issues.
