

GBA finals

The Georgetown Baseball Association held their Day of Champions last Saturday. Below are the results of the peewee and bantam divisions.

PeeWee League

Bronze Championship
G.W. Woodworking Blue Jays 14
Georgetown Toyota Expos 6

Silver Championship

Georgetown Lions Mariners 11
Varian Tigers 10

Mariners' defense, featuring Ed Alcorn, Joe Barber, Jeff Meinen, and David Potts, turned out to be the key in this final-frame nail-biter.

It was 2 Tigers out, bases loaded in the final inning when Meinen, now working from the mound, threw the full-count pitch to ease Mariners into the single-run win.

Gold Championship

Halton Rapid Print Yankees 15
Trout Farm Athletics 8

Simon Ford, Matt Hotham, and Nils Varga on Athletics' pitching staff were pressed hard by Rapid Print's bats. David Leverette (2 RBIs) and Alex Tremblett clicked for doubles.

Halton Hills Trout Farm gunners Ian Cunningham (2 RBIs) and Derek Mitchell (1 RBI) had three hits each, and Ford bagged a triple and an RBI in his turn at bat.

Bantam League

Bronze Championship
Hamilton Aunet Pirates 17
TD Bank Braves 14

Hitters Nick Bertrand, Blair Jackson, Brandon Peddle, and Derek Ross helped Braves to a strong showing against Pirates.

Pirates were able to outproduce Braves by three, on hits by Scott Connell, Doug Inglis, Jamie Greco, Richard Laroque, Steve Orticello, and Matt Zarnke.

Silver Championship

Kinsmen Expos 9
Shepherd TermoForming Blue Jays 7

Blue Jays and Expos traded shutout innings in a game which could have gone either way. Sean Barnes, Bill Dimitriou, Brent Hutzler, Mike McMenemy, and David Pegg contributed to Jays seven-run output.

Expos' Mike Carter, Shane Dubyck, Andy Kersley, Alan McCaughtry, Mark Misko, and Steve Shepherd totalled nine. Andy Kersley got the MVP nod for the day, and Shane Dubyck earned Most Improved Player honours.

Gold Championship

John Henderson Pro Shop
Yankees 7

Dave's Service Centre Cubs 5
Firm control by Yankees' pitching squad of Sam Butt, John Moon, Jason Moore, Mike Silvello, and Jamie Watt kept a tight game in hand.

Pete Johnson's outstanding catch at second provided the first out of the seventh and set the tone as Yankees closed off the game. Pitcher Moore also provided offence, hitting three-for-three on the evening.
