

Men Without Hairs to perform at Acton Fall Fair variety show

The Acton Fall Fair is coming next weekend, a three day fair that is packed with all the sights, sounds and smells of one of the best little fairs in southern Ontario!

Friday night at 8 p.m. be sure to catch the Family Entertainment program in the arena where your funny bone will be tickled by the off-beat humor of Men Without Hairs.

This duo has been performing since 1988 and has received many rave reviews. Armed with guitars, their off-the-wall wits, a few props and an enthusiastic crowd, Men Without Hairs will create an evening of clever, clean, energetic and versatile musical comedy that involves the audience as much as it amuses them.

And of course, Friday night is also the crowning of the 1993 Miss Acton Fall Fair, a rousing event that raises the roof as the exuberant crowd cheers the young contestants.

The second annual Craft Fair runs Saturday, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Sunday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the big top tent on the fairgrounds.

Twenty craftspeople who have been carefully selected for the quality of their work will be selling their handmade wares. There is woodworking, Christmas ornaments, children's purses, jewelry, decorative baskets, stuffed toys, hand knit sweaters, ceramics, hand built pottery, honey ... just to name a few. Come out and get a head start on your Christmas shopping or just pick up a little something to treat yourself!

range in age from 8 to 18 years, will dazzle you with their skill during their jump rope show. The group, who have appeared all over Canada, the U.S.A. and Denmark will be doing three performances at the Acton Fall Fair.

On Sunday from 12:30 p.m. on, motorcycle stuntman Tom Farr will thrill the crowds with his daring feats.

Events that are happening all weekend at the fair include Bert and Ernie, the magnificent oxen that will take patrons on a ride around the fairgrounds in an open wagon; Jean Claude Gaultier, the blacksmith who demonstrates his skills at forging horse shoes; Ernestine and Ethel, the pastel pink and green chickens who along with their feathered friends, greet visitors to the poultry barn with a cacophony of squawking.

This is just a sample of what's happening at the 80th Annual Acton Fall Fair.

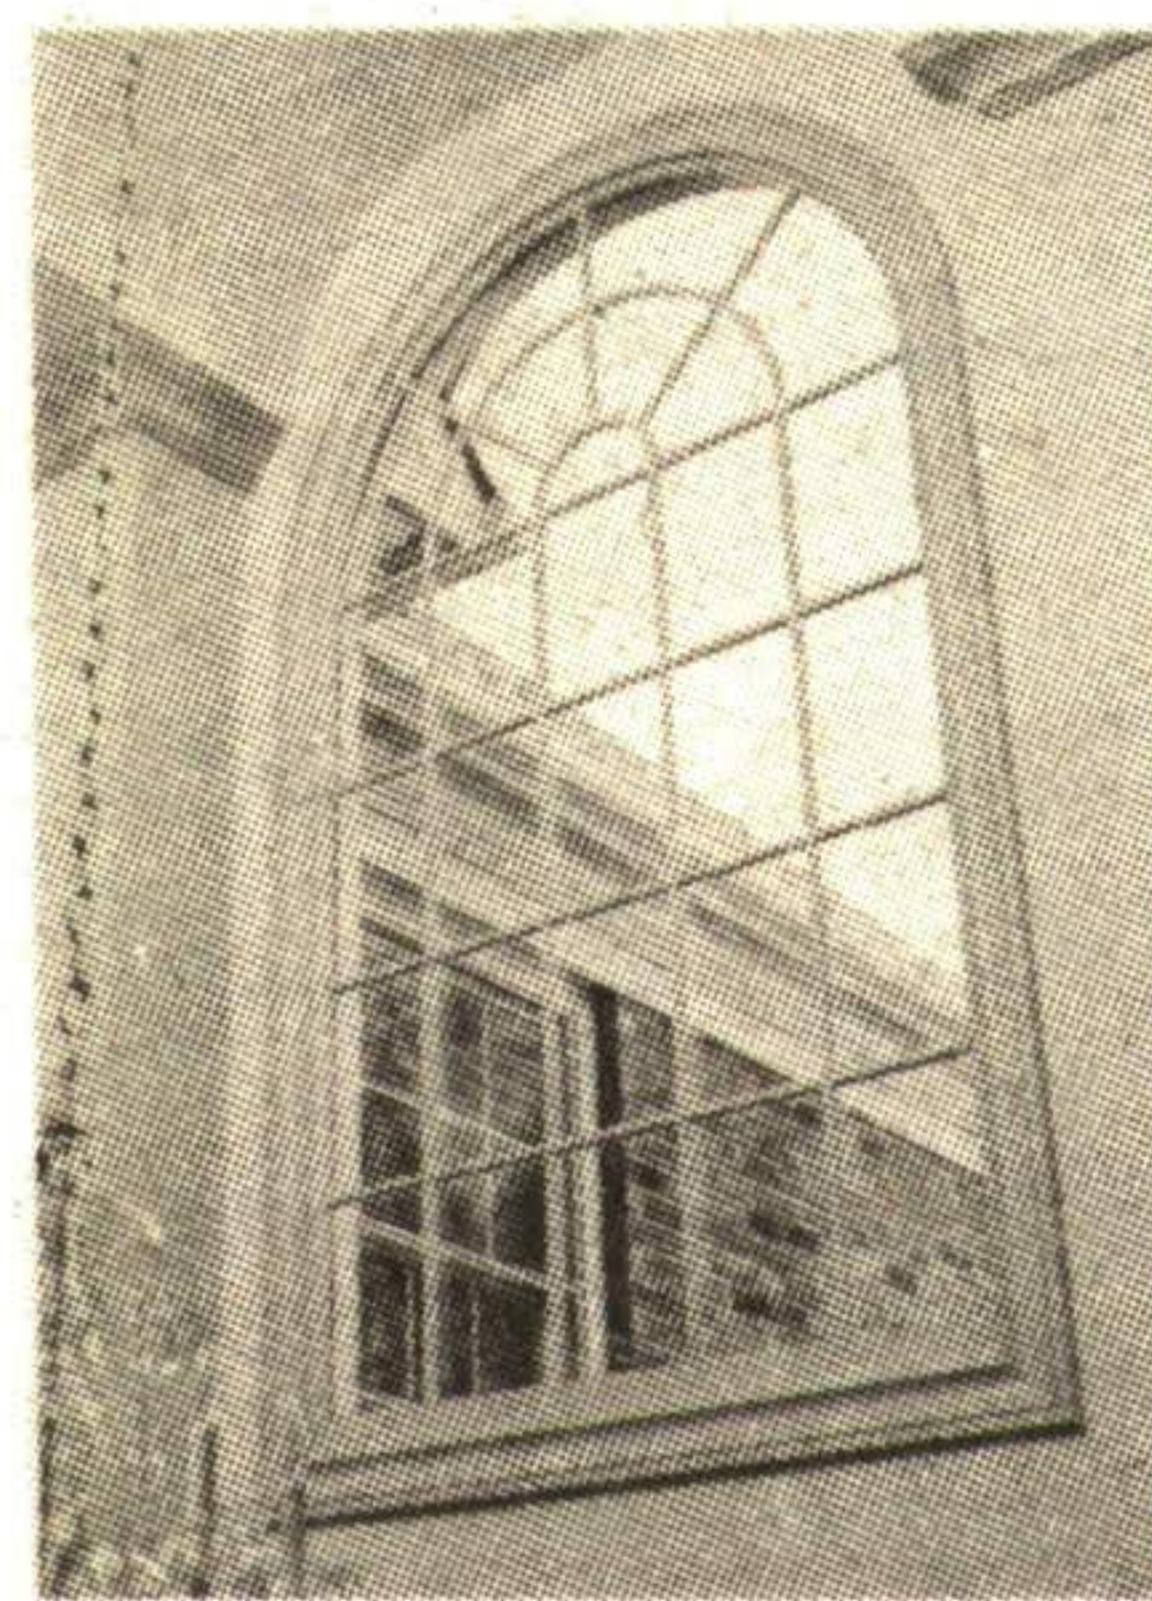

That madcap duo, Men Without Hairs, otherwise known as Edgar Thatcher and Victor J. Hanson, will be hosting the annual Friday night variety show at Acton Fall Fair in the Acton Community Centre. As well as an evening of great laughs and music, spectators will be able to cheer on their favorites as local ladies vie for the honor of being Miss Acton Fair for 1993.

The Lincoln Leapers perform on Saturday from 3 p.m. This is a sight you don't want to miss! This energetic group of young skippers, who
