Unemployed? Unemployed and frustrated? Feel like you are alone?

Several programs within North Halton will be offered to unemployed. Those registered for jobsOntario may register for the following.

In Acton, jobsOntario will be offering a Changes, Challenges and Choices training program. This course will take place on October 4-8, 12-15 and Oct. 18 and is aimed at providing participants with a realistic view of today's job market, the ability to recognize the challenges facing them and how to make the changes appropriate to their situation. Classes run 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. plus one hour of counselling time. Participants will examine the economic and business cycle, deal with stress and time management and assess personal skills.

In Georgetown, jobsOntario is offering a Career Planning course from October 18-December 24. This course will assist the unemployed in identifying realistic career goals and develop an action plan to attain these goals. These courses are offered to those
