Squares swing their partners

Georgetown District High School was home to an exuberant celebration last Saturday night.

About 100 whirling couples came to celebrate the 15th anniversary of the local dance club, Pine Valley Squares.

The colorfully dressed couples strutted and twirled to the musical commands of veteran callers Al Calhoun and Les Greenwood. Visitors came from all parts of southern Ontario.

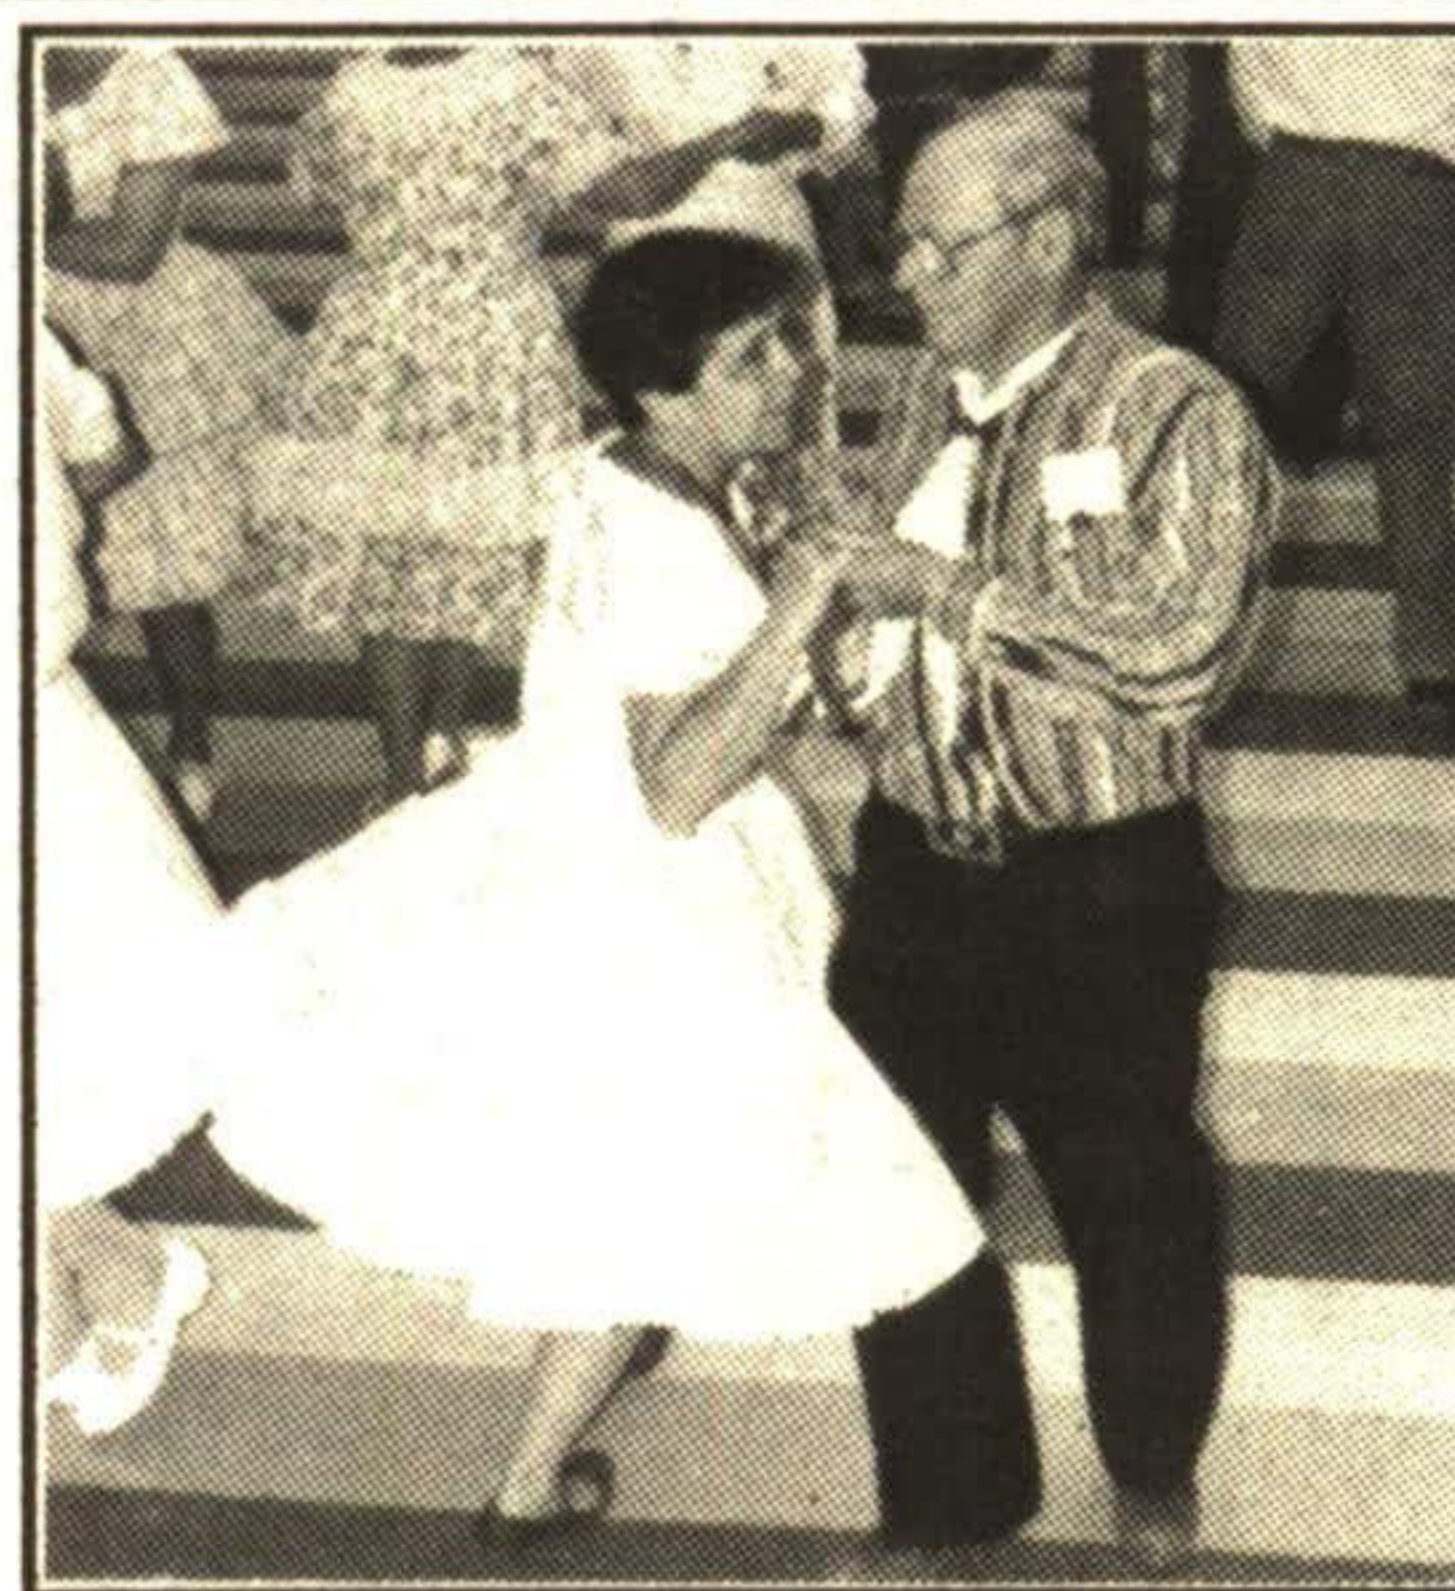

Since 1978 the local club has taught scores of couples international dancing. Because the dance moves and the calls are the same in North America, Europe and elsewhere, dancers can find friendly clubs wherever they travel.

Pine Valley's Wes McKnight calls for two local evening groups each week.

Beginners meet Tuesday at George Kennedy School; intermediates meet at Pineview School.

Newcomers are always welcome; full details may be obtained from Cathy or Gord Hunt (877-6224).

Pine Valley Squares dancers celebrate the club's anniversary.

Children's show at the theatre

The Recreation and Parks Department presents The Doug Barr Children's Show, at the John Elliott Theatre, 9 Church Street, Georgetown. There will be two performances at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. sharp on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 12th and 13th.

Doug Barr is an established Canadian children's singer, songwriter and performer. Tickets are $2.50 each (GST included). Place order by phoning 873-2600, ext. 285 or 877-7915.

WE ARE CLOSING FOR A FACELIFT. THE DOCTOR SAYS WE WILL LOOK BETTER THAN EVER.

Belamy's Restaurant will be closed from Sunday Oct. 3 to Wednesday, Oct. 6 for a facelift. We will open again on Thursday Oct. 7 with an exciting new menu and a new look. The management and staff look forward to seeing you after the operation.
