

Wylie Hudspeth of Marzo Gloves in Acton dropped by Park School last week to donate 36 pairs of work gloves to the Grade 5 students to use as they clean up the woodlot behind the school, which has been incorporated into the school curriculum. Hudspeth talked briefly to the students about the values of good conservation procedures before presenting the students with the gloves. Students included (from left) Andrea Forrest, Amanda Hunt, Jeffrey Maiezza and Boris Cho, along with Grade 5 teacher Rob Burnette.
