Autumn festival at Crawford Lake

Enjoy a country style Thanksgiving at Crawford Lake Conservation Area during the seventh annual Autumn on the Escarpment festival on October 9, 10 and 11, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Fall colors are sure to be at their peak of beauty, especially at the breathtaking Nassagaweya Canyon Lookout.

Park visitors can enjoy a leisurely hike through fallen leaves on their way to the lookout, or may choose to take a horse drawn wagon ride.

Complimentary wagon ride tickets will be available to visitors on a first come, first serve basis.

At the Conservation Centre, freshly baked fruit pies and hot apple cider will be available. Visitors are sure to enjoy sipping cider and munching on pie while listening to some toe tappin' live folk music on the patio.

Don't miss the Great Pumpkin Raffle — a chance to win a giant pumpkin to take home! As well, a scavenger hunt will be held with prizes for participants.

In the reconstructed fifteenth century Iroquoian Village, visitors can see how native people lived at Crawford Lake.

Both longhouses will be open for visitors to explore and discover. Special guests will demonstrate the traditional crafts of ash splinting for basketry (Sunday and Monday only), and porcupine quill and leather work.

Kids of all ages will want to learn and enjoy traditional native games and challenges and also make a craft to take home.

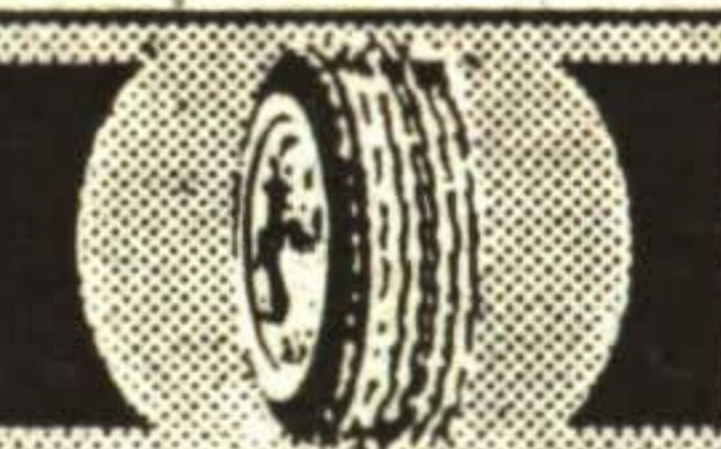

Crawford Lake is located at the corner of Guelph Line and Steeles Avenue, approximately five kilometres, south of Hwy 401. Call (905) 854-0234 (weekends) for further information.
