

Workshops for volunteers

A series of workshops are planned for those who volunteer in North Halton. Volunteers are encouraged to come out and meet others from different agencies, enjoy some refreshments, and listen to interesting speakers.

On Tuesday, October 26th, 9-11:30 a.m. join Rev. Douglas Hallman in a "To talk and to listen" workshop for volunteers. Learning good communication, a two-way street will be focused on. Creative conversation and effective listening skills will be taught. Held in Acton at the Bethel Christian Reform Church, Hwy. 7 and Churchill Road, this event promises to be informative and educational. A great opportunity to learn new skills and meet others.

ASSIC Alert

Acton Social Services and Information Centre

Are you able to attend? Contact the agency you volunteer with to enquire. A note to all ASSIC Volunteers: have you registered to attend? Don't forget to do so by calling Sue at Acton Social Services and Information Centre at 853-3310. Rides can be arranged for those interested.

Sorry for a piece of misleading information in last week's column. As I am informed by the president of the Ladies Auxiliary, the visit of the Sunnybrook Veterans is by invitation only. The visit is as stated still scheduled Sunday, Oct. 17.

Pub night tickets for October 29 are selling fast. This promises to be a good night, featuring Anita Scott, The Pearly Queen. Cocktails at 7 p.m. Tickets are $5 each.

Remembrance Dinner tickets will be on sale from Oct. 16 to Nov. 1 on a first come basis. The price is $7.50. Tickets will be available at the bar.

Early Bird dues payment available 'til end of November. Renew your membership now and save some cash.

The Meat Draw on October 9 was fairly well attended and the lucky winners were: Keith Tost, Kathy Watson, Dot Richardson, P.
