

Camden Carpets opens in Georgetown

Camden Carpet & Interiors in the Knolcrest Plaza provides Georgetown shoppers with a wide variety of carpets, rugs, flooring and window fashions.

The store, located at 348 Guelph St., in unit 6A, held its official opening recently. Store owners Denise and Ralph Marchese are eager to serve the Halton Hills community.

Along with Camden Carpets' own brand, other carpet brands available in the store include Dupont, Stainmaster Plus and Wear-dated II. Armstrong vinyl flooring and Robbins and Bruce hardwood flooring are also available at the new store.

"Camden Carpets is backed by over 50 years of floor covering experience," said Denise. They have another store in Woodbridge. "We decided to open in Georgetown because we really liked the location and small town atmosphere here."

Along with the wide variety of carpeting Camden Carpet offers custom area rugs that can be made to order for customers. Unique designs can be incorporated into the rugs designs. The store currently has an area rug featuring Sylvester the cat.

The store offers a unique customer satisfaction policy. If within 30 days a customer is not completely satisfied with their new carpeting the store will replace it.

Customers to the new store will be able to tap the design expertise of Sharon Freestone who has a strong background in interior design.

"We will be providing in-house service," said Freestone. "We are actually a home fashion store."

The store offers customers a wide variety of custom window coverings including vertical and horizontal blinds, patterned roll-down shades and pleated shades in a range of colors.

The store manager is Bruce Scarlett and Greg Marsh, who grew up in Georgetown, is a salesperson at the store.
