DOWNTOWN GEORGETOWN

Christmas spirit hits Downtown Georgetown

From noon to 5 p.m. today (Sunday) downtown Georgetown businesses are inviting people to an open house for some good olde fashioned Christmas Cheer.

"It's just like you would have at your home," said Business Improvement Area manager Margaret Vint. Store owners will welcome people in to browse through their shops and pick out that perfect gift. They might even have mulled cider, Christmas punch, cheese and crackers and some other goodies on hand.

Santa Claus will also be making the rounds, visiting through the area during the open house. He'll be pleased to accept any Christmas lists from boys and girls so they won't be disappointed on Christmas morning.

Only at this time will you be able to get some Downtown Dollars which amount a 20 per cent reduction on purchases made before Dec. 31. Shoppers can pay $40 cash to get $50 in Downtown Dollars, which are redeemable at businesses within the Georgetown B.I.A. These are available to a maximum of $100 per family and can be purchased at the BIA office at 116 Mill St.

This is the launch of the downtown Christmas season, and also beginning Sunday, parking will be free at the meters until the end of 1993. Christmas hours are Monday to Friday 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sunday noon to 5 p.m. Christmas eve stores will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Breakfast with Santa will be held on Saturday, Dec. 11 at the McGibbon Banquet Room. There will be two seatings, 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. and tickets need to be purchased in advance. They are available at Fletcher's Family Shoes, Oxbow Books, Penniesworth, Up, Up, and Away and from the McGibbon.

If children didn't get a coloring contest poster from Santa at the Santa Claus parade last weekend, they are still available at downtown businesses. Entry has to be made by Tuesday, Nov. 30, and there will be three winners in different age groups.
