Willows paints set for Mother Goose

Returning to put sparkle into a Georgetown Little Theatre set this Christmas, is none other than Jacky Willows, whose fairy tale vision is expressed through the bright colors of the scenery in GLT's upcoming Mother Goose.

Jacky has been painting for GLT "one show short of ten years," but has found her talents stretch to Globe Productions as well (Mikado, Into The Woods, Oliver), collecting a slew of praise with each effort!

Nominated also for her designs (The Curate Shakespeare) as well as her paintings (Night Must Fall - a director's special award!), Jacky's current work will help dazzle the young and young-at-heart, when they come to see Mother Goose December 10 (7:30 p.m.) 11 & 12 (3:00 & 7:30 p.m.) at the John Elliott Theatre.

Tickets are $7 each, or $5 for groups of twenty or more! There are still plenty of excellent seats for the evening performances.

Santa has been a busy fellow of late, visiting with area children and getting their Christmas lists. Larhae and Whitney Bucke seemed a little shy as they gave Santa their wish list at the Downtown Georgetown open house last weekend. Photo by LAURA SALVERDA
