

Fitzwhiskey Raiders lose four straight at Parry Sound peewee tournament

The Georgetown Charlie Fitzwhiskey's Major Peewee Raiders faced some tough competition at the Parry Sound Tournament last weekend and were eliminated in four straight games.

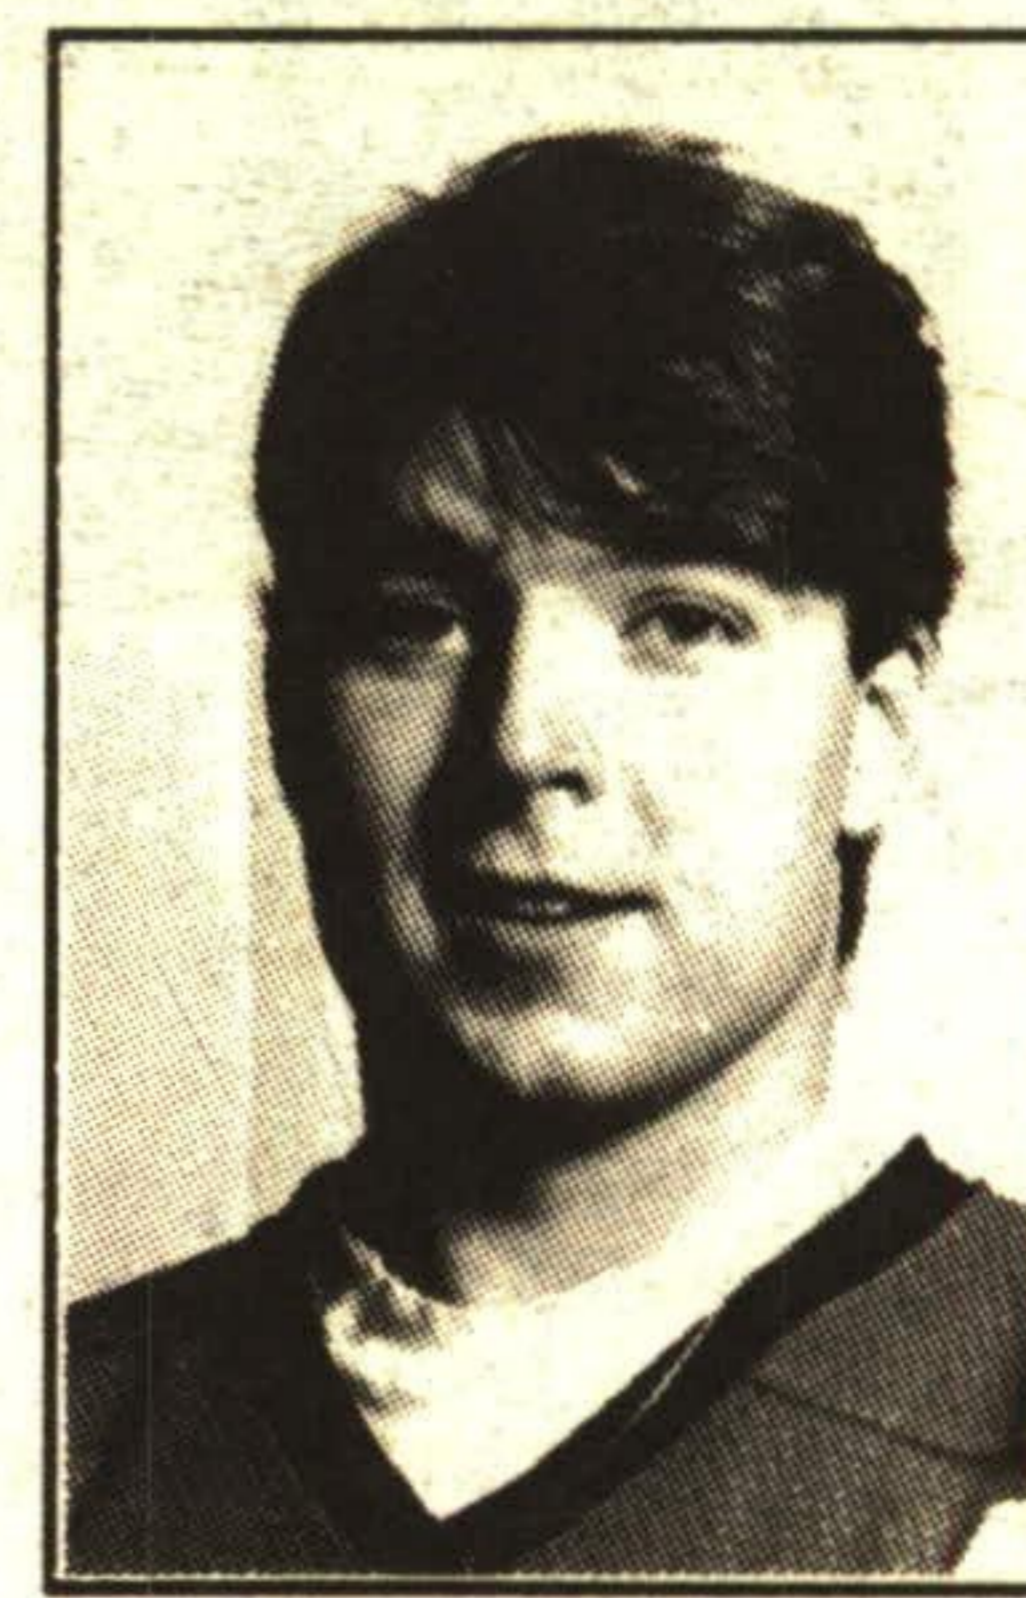

Georgetown took a tough 3-1 loss to Barrie in their opening game. While they played a strong game and tied the score at 1-1 in the final period on a great goal by Geoff Bahra (assisted by Judd Richardson), they couldn't stop Barrie's sound offensive attack in the final 10 minutes and allowed two more goals and skated away empty-handed.

The Raiders were then doubled up 4-2 by Penetang in their second match. Again Georgetown was able to tie the score in the third period but again they couldn't hold on. Scoring for the Raiders were Daryl Ashby and David Markham.

Game three held little competition as Oakville skated away 9-3 winners over Georgetown. Jeff Hohendorf, Ryan Smith and Robert MacLeod netted markers while Geoff Bahr and Joe Goodhew recorded two assists each.

In their fourth and final game, Georgetown was shutout 3-0 by Gravenhurst and bowed out of the tournament. Chris Hall played well in net in the losing effort.

IAN ELLIS

Ellis in top ten

Georgetown Chrysler Raider forward Ian Ellis is putting up some good numbers for the Central Ontario Junior A hockey club.

The latest statistics released by the league have Ellis in seventh overall in the West Division scoring with an impressive 27 goals and 21 assists in 22 games for 48 points. Last season Ellis scored 34 times and assisted on 26 more for 60 points.

First year centre Doug Sheppard is 21st overall with 16 goals and 14 assists for 30 points.

Ryan Foster of Brampton leads the league with 52 points.

HALTON HILLS WEEKEND

SPORTS

Carl's Catering Company Limited

Bino Brampton 457-2813
Dalli Georgetown 873-2277

Since 1959

Sports

SHORTS

Tough times

The Halton Minor Novice "AAA" Hurricanes are currently in a tough stretch in local hockey play and have managed only one point in their last two games.

The Hurricanes began last week with a hard-fought 3-3 tie with Stoney Creek at Tonnelli Arena in Milton.

This tight checking contest saw Tim Jasperson, Robert Sgarbossa and Andrew Alarie net goals and Danny Syvert, Jasperson, Alarie, Todd Gilmore and Adam Kemp draw assists.

Robert Ogle and Patrick Sheeren also played good games.

Last Sunday, the Hurricanes were ousted 9-2 by a powerful Oakville crew. The visiting team played with a lot of heart but couldn't keep pace with first-place Oakville.

Scoring for the Hurricanes were Adam Kemp and Robert Sgarbossa while Peter Schultz and Tyler Czuba picked up the assists.

The team's next home game is Monday, December 6th at Tonnelli Arena.

Medal effort

The GDHS senior girls' volleyball squad got their season rolling with a gold-medal showing at their tournament last Saturday.

The 12-team tournament was capped off with Georgetown cranking out a 2-1 victory over the Oakville Trafalgar Red Devils.

The senior and junior girls' volleyball team begin league play Tuesday, December 13 with home games against the Burlington Central Trojans at 3:45 p.m.

Novices fall

Acton Novice 1 Sabres had two more chances last week to try and solve the Arthur Tigers puzzle but came away with only a tie and a loss.

On Wednesday, Acton battled Arthur to a 4-4 tie on home ice. On Thursday, Acton traveled to Arthur and lost 4-2. Acton goalscorers on Wednesday were Sean Kirk, Andrew Pemberton, Mark Pawlak and John Field. Assists went to Jon Newby with two, Steve Atkinson, Nick Mastro, Kirk, Field and Pemberton.

Field and Pemberton scored for Acton on Thursday with Atkinson and Pemberton getting assists. Acton Nellis Construction Novice 1 Sabres record stands at 10-3-3.

In exhibition play the Sabres took on Burlington AA major novices and turned in a solid outing, falling 2-1. John Field netted the lone goal for the home side with Pemberton assisting.

Battle for the ball!

The action was fast and furious as Sam Sherratt boys took a 2-0 win over McKenzie-Smith, beating them 15-12 and 15-10 at the North Halton bvolleyball finals last week at Acton High School. Sherratt competed in the Halton finals Friday at E.C. Drury High School in Milton.

TED BROWN photo

Rebels winless in hockey action

Despite some improvement in Halton Regional boys hockey action this past week, the Georgetown Rebels took two more losses and are now 0-4 on the season.

The Rebels opened up the week with an 8-3 loss to the Lord Elgin Lancers of Burlington Monday at Memorial Arena. While they were able to get on the scoreboard for the first time this season, they were clearly no match for their Burlington opponents.

Scoring a pair for Georgetown was Ryan Hay while Rob Copland chipped in with a single. Jamie Stephenson and Mike Bahr drew assists and goalie Zack Szczebonski was between the pipes in the losing effort.

Tuesday afternoon, the Rebels traveled to Burlington and were blasted 8-1 by the Assumption Crusaders.

Ryan Hay scored his team's lone goal and Seth Homer was in net and took another loss for Georgetown.

"We've been making some improvements in our game, but clearly we're still struggling," said Rebel head coach Neil Cotton.

The team has cancelled their trip to the Lake Placid Tournament next week. Their next home game is tomorrow afternoon (Monday) at 3:30 against the E.C. Drury Spartans.

Hurricane atoms continue to roll

The Big Arn's/Don Cherry's Major Atom Hurricanes beat Welland and tied Chingacousy over the weekend, to add three more points to their total.

Chris Alarie fired an early goal into the Welland net, on a pass from linemate Joel Petkoff. Trailing Welland late in the third period by a score of 2-1, the Halton squad came back to life as Craig MacDonald, Jeff Brownlee and Alarie added three quick goals to win it 4-2. Notching assists were Petkoff, Brownlee, Scott Nairn, Carter Trevisani, and Jarrett Konkle.

The Hurricanes skated to their fourth tie Sunday, at the Hillsburgh arena. They got the lead early but just couldn't hold onto it against a tough Chingacousy squad. Highlighting the game was a two goal performance by Tyler Grinyer and solid goaltending from Matt Kerfoot. Assisting on Grinyer's goals was Mike Watters. Craig MacDonald scored the third Halton marker, set up perfectly by Mike Knoepfli.

Great defensive play was noticeable by Brydon Butterworth, Jordan Jeans, Carter Trevisani, Frasier Komow, and Jacob Bayley.

Shevalier not selected

Los Angeles Kings' draft choice Jeff Shevalier won't be with Team Canada when it competes at the World Junior Championships over Christmas.

The former Acton Sabres star and Erin resident, was in camp with the team before the 1993-94 campaign began but was left off the short list announced on Tuesday.

He is currently with North Bay of the OHL.

Athletes of the Week

The Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Emily Savage and Steve Turkosz. Emily is a Grade 10 student who was chosen for her participation on the school swim team. Steve is an OAC student who is the skip on the school curling team. Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Kathy Shier and Jason MacArthur. Kathy was selected for her outstanding season with the junior Rebels field hockey team. Jason was chosen for his performance on the midget volleyball team, which finished second in Halton.

EMILY SAVAGE

STEVE TURKOSZ

KATHY SHIER

JASON MacARTHUR