After a slow start out of the gate Monday evening at Alcott Arena, the Georgetown Juvenile Raiders couldn't catch up and fell 6-1 to the league-leading Chinguacousy Blues in Tri-county hockey action. The loss dropped Georgetown to 4-6-2 on the season. Derek Ellard picked up teammate Mike Oldreive's wrist shot and slid it into the Blues' net for his team's lone goal Monday night.

Acton bantams tie top squad

The Acton Firefighter Bantams earn one of a possible six points last week in Tri-county Harrison hockey action.

The Sabres turned in an exciting comeback and pulled off a 4-4 tie with league leading Elora and then the following night the Sabres travelled to Georgetown only to lose a 6-4 decision to the Raiders. They also dropped a 4-0 game to Fergus.

Scoring for Acton against Elora were Steve White with a pair, Jason Pembleton and Matt Boycott. Adam Daponte, Paul Dale and Gary Genzler picked up assists.

Against Georgetown, Pembleton unloaded with a hattrick and teammate Trevor Malloy chipped in a single. Malloy and Gary Genzler drew assists.

Curtis Carr netted three for Georgetown while Steve Markham, Mike Walinga, and Bob Pilgrim notched singles. Markham added a pair of assists while Chris Goodhew, Shane Thompson, Pilgrim and Walinga added singles.
