BOYER, Margaret - Wife, Mother and Grandmother who died suddenly December 6, 1985. We think of you today with love As we have often done We feel again the bitter blow That never should have come. You were the strong link In our Family chain, The family you left behind Has never been the same. Each of us has gone on In our own different ways, The only thing we have in common Are the many happy memories. They say that time heals everything, We know it isn't so Because it hurts as much today As it did eight years ago. Love always, Guy, Ian, Linda, Aaron & Jordan, Lori, Paul, Rachel, Raymond & Kyle.

655 In memoriams

IN memory of Joe Idzi who passed away, November 30, 1990. It was one of those impulsive moments. Calling Mom to look after Kristin. But now I know it wasn't. Dad was here to whisper in my ear Mom needed to do something To distract her grief and fear.

Three years ago - that day. When he left us for a new world. Our world, but yet not here. He watches over us, around us When he sees we need him.

Cabbage rolls and sour cream My impulsive craving. Needing Mom to make some I ingest it without eating.

Dad, this was your sign. I missed it. But not this time - today I know it.

I love you. Come again another day to stay for awhileI pray.
