ASSIC sponsors Smile Theatre shows

Acton Social Services and Information Centre (ASSIC) would like to invite everyone to enjoy some quality theatre in Acton.

ASSIC is sponsoring a series of plays that are put on by the Smile Theatre Group. This is a non-profit professional Toronto theatre group.

On October 21, the first Smile Theatre play was held. It was a great success. Approximately 100 attended Bea, Moo and Mumsie. It was 1 hour and 15 minutes full of music and comedy. The play was family oriented and interesting for all age groups.

The second play will be held on Wednesday, February 2, at 7:30 p.m. and called Doc Ruffin. It's a musical about Anderson Ruffin Abbott, first Canadian black doctor and civil war hero. Many who enjoyed the first play will be back to see the second play.

On Thursday, March 24 at 7:30 p.m., Smile Theatre will present their last play of this Acton tour. Hey Ruby! is a dance musical about Halifax's Ruby Keeler who tapped her way into the hearts of many.

The Smile Theatre Group is sponsored by Acton Social Services and Information Centre. Tickets are $6 and are available through ASSIC.

All plays are presented at Acton District High School.

Toastmasters inducted 11 new members into its club within the last four months. Front (from left) Pierre Brianceau, Andrew Crane, Adrian Wiekenkamp. Back: Julie Holmes, Linda Gilmour, Anne Fraas, and Arlene Coultrup. Not pictured: Byron Conrad, Loretta Ducas, Glenda Hansen and Mary Tiessen. Would you like to gain confidence, think quickly on your feet, develop leadership skills and have fun too? Halton Hills Toastmasters meet every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. at Glen Williams Town Hall. Why not come and join us for a visit? For more information call Chris Miller at 853-1007 or Maureen Blyth at 877-1923. Photo by LAURA SALVERDA
