

McKinnon leads bantams to victory

Despite two solid performances recently, the Acton Firefighter Bantam Sabres were able to grab only one win in two games.

A high-flying Acton squad easily took down Milton 6-1, thanks to a three-goal night by Marty McKinnon. Also scoring were Scott McIntyre, Gary Genzler and Jon Routledge while Chris Williams, Routledge, Paul Dale, Matt Boycott, Nick Vanegmond, McIntyre, Steve White and Genzler recorded the assists.

McKinnon netted two goals in Acton 6-4 loss to Elora. Trevor Malloy and Steve White notched singles. Jason Pembleton, Dave Clark, Malloy, Adam Daponte and Williams drew assists.

Nellis novices split

A win and a loss for the Acton Nellis Construction Novice Sabres last puts them at an impressive 13-4-3 season record, in Tri-county harrison division action.

The Sabres pounded out a big 5-1 victory over Fergus last Wednesday with a pair of goals by Mike Dube and singles coming from John Field, Shawn Prentice and Steve Atkinson. Recording two assists each were Atkinson, Mike McDonald, Chris Jowett and David Lyons.

A heartbreaking third period goal gave the Sabres a disappointing 2-1 loss to the Erin-Hillsburgh Devils Friday. Scoring

Acton's lone goal was John Field, with assists going to Andrew Pembleton and Mike McDonald.

Milton rallies

The Acton Monmar Homes Pee wee Sabres were edged out 4-3 by Milton last week at Acton Community Centre.

The Sabres turned in a solid first period and kept paced in the second to build a 3-0 lead. However, a four goal attack by Milton ended Acton's hopes for a victory.

Scoring for the hometown were Derrick Lockerbie, Mike Hills and Bob Brooks. Drawing assists were Hills and Matt Bodin.
