Belles and Beaus complete fun-packed fall/winter agenda

Well Father Time is sure an energetic old cuss — the older he gets, the faster he goes. It just doesn't seem possible, a year has slipped past so quickly. Oh well, I guess one shouldn't complain, we are at least privileged to be around to witness its passing.

It's been two or three months since I've told you about the "doings" of the Belles and Beaus. Guess I'd better back track a little. There was a wonderful night at the Dome, enjoying the Band Tattoo.

That was really a spectacular event - imagine 1,500 dancers on the floor at one time, all resplendent in their various gay kilts, long gowns and plaid scarves. They completely surrounded the field. Then in came over a 1,000 pipers, filling the air with their Scottish tunes. An American Naval Band demonstrated their art, in a fancy drill, something at which, they are very adept.

Next, came my choice of music the stirring brass bands. An English Band stole the show (in my estimation). It takes an English Band to bring forth the beautiful tones of the brass instruments. It brought back memories of our local band of a few years ago who, under the very capable leadership of Mr. Alf Perrott, was the days!" October found us enjoying the Oktoberfest Show and the ever, very good food at Bingeman's Park. The concert by the Irish Rovers at the Heritage Theatre in Brampton sure turned out to be a toe tapping affair - they haven't lost a snitch of their energy after so many years of performing. Later the Carleton Show Band at the same theatre had us thrilled with their lively music and amusing antics, not to mention their stirring rendition of Danny Boy, as only their Irish tenor can render. December found us enjoying our annual Christmas Party, catered by the Ladies of Knox, in their usual excellent fashion. The Milton Seniors Band had us up and dancing to their lively tunes. Our last meeting of the years found us enjoying the Square Dancers and a very nice lunch put on by the male members of our club. For the remaining days of the year, it will be the Christmas Lights Tour, card writing, and gift shopping. I hope you all have a very happy healthy holiday season. God's blessing in the New Year.

Recently, I have found that many investors are experiencing a similar dilemma. With interest rates sinking steadily and stock markets rising sharply, investors are looking for a way to produce growth of capital without leaving the safety of interest bearing investments and plunging believe the Global Strategy

World Bond Fund presents an excellent opportunity.

Global Strategy World Bond

Fund invests your funds in a diversified portfolio of international bonds selected with the safety that comes with investments in high quality bonds, investors can benefit from high interest rates in some world markets, and make capital gains from strong foreign currencies and declining interest rates. Rothschilds seeks out investments in the right bond markets, and in the right currencies - all over the globe. Currently the fund has substantial positions in both German and investors an excellent opportunity to diversify their interest bearing invest-
