Georgetown Bowl

Santa Claus visited Georgetown Bowl and held his audiences' rapt attention, especially the pee-wee and smurf bowlers. The young bowlers were held spellbound by Santa's inspiring words and the expectation of the gift giving. In fact the two top pee-wees bowled terrific - Jason Pshyk had 430 while Patrick Hole bested him with 438.

In the bantams, Brendan Louth is steadily leaving everyone behind as he increased his average again, a total of 27 points since the beginning of the year. Louth's highest single game was 282.

Junior Matthew Walker is still determined to surpass senior Ryan Martin in average. He rolled a 720 triple with his best game 307 and thus brought his league average for the season to 210. Paul Larocque playing catch-up has finally pulled ahead of Adam Scuralli into second place by two points. Janice Somers last week was 0.5 ahead of Lynn Moreland. This week the tables turned and Lynn has become the leader by 0.3

The senior division, knowing the closeness of the qualifying rounds for the National Championship series, are finally getting into gear. Ralph Miller, the master instructor of the boys section, aided Dee Dee Haynes to get her girls untracked. Cindy Clarke with a 705 triple increased her average by 3 points and Tanya Martin clicked for a 696 triple while Sharon Shapcott came up with 621. But Ralph's boys still hold their supremacy with six of them bowling over 600.

They were led by the 693 of Jason Dinney. In fact, David Leslie even has pulled into the charmed 200 average

Raiders fall to Derbys

By STEVE LeBLANC

Special to The Independent/Free Press The Georgetown Chrysler Raiders had their losing streak extended to six games Tuesday night with a disappointing 7-4 loss to the Streetsville Derbys in Mississauga.

The loss, which gave Georgetown a 6-24 record prior to Christmas, was all the more disappointing because of the improvements shown over the past few weeks and because the Derbys have been struggling, managing only a 4-4 tie with the last place Royal York. The Raiders kept pace with Streetsville in the first period and finished the first 20 minutes tied 3-3. Unfortunately, the local Junior A squad's offensive efforts shutdown in the final two periods and they managed only one more goal.

Meanwhile, penalties hurt Georgetown's game as they had three powerplay goals scored against them in the final two peri-

Paul Stinnett was between the pipes Tuesday for Georgetown and was again denied his third win of the season.

Leading the way for the Raiders was forward Trevor Elinesky, who netted two goals in the opening frame of action. Notching singles for the visiting crew were Ian Ellis and Doug Sheppard while Ellis, Sheppard, Trevor Brandt, Chris Monk, Kris Arro and Jason Parks drew the assists.

Scoring for Streetsville were Derek Wells, Mike Stone, Scott Bingham, Steve Bojgon, Jamie Wensley, Joel Thomas and Cory MacDonald.

The Raiders host the Derbys tonight (Sunday) at Alcott Arena, 7:30 p.m. for the teams' annual Boxing Day showdown.

Slow start for Redmen

By STEVE LeBLANC

Special to The Independent/Free Press

The Acton Redmen junior boys' basketball team got off to a slow start in Halton Regional Richardson Division play with back-to-back losses to the Lord Elgin Lancers and Burlington Central Trojans.

The Redmen got the week started with an 88-49 loss to Lord Elgin Monday and then played host to Burlington Central in a 54-29 losing effort Wednesday afternoon.

"Our performance so far has been just awful. We're not passing the ball and it's hurting our game," said junior Redmen head coach Dave Boycott.

Acton fell behind early Wednesday against the Trojans and trailed 20-8 after the first quarter and 25-14 at the half. Despite working their way into the key as often as their opponents, Redmen shooters just couldn't find their groove and weren't able to make any type of comeback in second half Leading the way for the hometeam were Shawn Hopkins and Dave Turple, who each netted nine points. Mike Debruyn chipped in with five points and Shawn Frame netted two baskets, while Ed Bridge netted one.

In their loss to the Lancers, Turple found his scoring touch and recorded 20 points while Hopkins and Jared Nabeta scored 10 and six points respectively.

The midget boys' squad are also 0-2 after taking losses to Burlington Central and Lord Elgin.

The teams' next home game is Wednesday, January 12 at 3:45 p.m. against the E.C. Drury Spartans.
