Open auditions for GLT

Ever ready to ensure that a truly great stage production comes from careful pre-planning, Georgetown Little Theatre will be hosting a new set of auditions for its third and final show of the season, Neil Simon's The Gingerbread Lady.

Veteran director Vera MacDonald will be holding these open auditions Monday, January 24th, and Tuesday January 25th at 7:30 p.m. at 33 Stewarttown Road, GLT's headquarters.

Billed as 'adult entertainment', The Gingerbread Lady requires three males and three females between the ages of 20 and 45 years of age. All interested thespians are welcome to join us to present this poignant, intensely dramatic and very humorous production. See you there!

For further information please contact Joyce Holland 873-6211.

Winter on the Escarpment festival

Crawford Lake Conservation Area will be holding its sixth annual "Winter on the Escarpment Festival" on Sunday, February 6 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Enjoy horse drawn rides along snow covered trails. Free tickets for the ride are available on a first come, first serve basis at the Information Booth.

Quantities are limited, so get there early!

After your ride, warm up by a crackling fire and enjoy a marshmallow roast and hot chocolate.

Visitors will have the opportunity to learn more about native culture by visiting the fifteenth century reconstructed Iroquoian Village. Both longhouses will be open to explore and staff are available to answer questions.

As well, traditional stories will be shared around the fire in the Turtle Clan Longhouse at 1:30 and 3 p.m.

Visitors can try their hand at snowsnake and other native games at 11 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. or make a craft to take home in the Wolf Clan Longhouse.

A guided snowshoe hike will begin at 1 p.m. and numbers are limited, so please call (905) 854-0234 to pre-register. A guided winter hike will take place if snow conditions are unsuitable.

Crawford Lake Conservation Area is located at the corner of Guelph Line and Steeles Avenue, approximately 20 km north of the Q.E.W. and 5 km south of Hwy 401.
