

Preventing suicide

Would you like to be able to assess individuals at risk of suicidal behaviour and learn suicide intervention techniques? A two day workshop which teaches emergency first aid to prevent suicide will be offered by the Canadian Mental Health Association in Acton: January 20 and 21. This workshop is designed for anyone who may be in contact with a person at risk of suicide. Pre-registration is required. Call Kenzie at (905) 845-5044 for more information or to register.

In Memoriam

The deadline is fast approaching for placing an In Memoriam on the back page of the program for The Spectacular New Age Vaudeville Show for 1994 which will be held at the John Elliott Theatre on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, February 4, 5 and 6. This In Memoriam is to honor a loved one and your name, as a patron, will also be shown. Please contact the Canadian Cancer Society's Georgetown office at 877-1124, Monday to Friday, 1-4:30 p.m. prior to Friday, January 21 as these programs must go to press.

Open house

Owl Prowl planned for Mountsberg

What could be nicer than a moonlit walk through a shadowy pine forest - walking through glistening snow, breathing in the sweet aroma of pine needles and watching crystals form from your breath.

These winter events are all part of Mountsberg's Owl Prowl on January 21, 22, 28, and 29 from 7 to 9 p.m.

Participants will meet some of the resident owls of Mountsberg and learn about their habits as well as how and why they hoot.

Enjoy a slide show, hooting lessons, demonstrations and a nature walk to hoot and listen for wild owls.

Saturday, January 22 and Friday, January 28 will be set aside for those with small children who will meet some special puppet visitors.

Admission is by advance payment only. Adults: $8, Child: $5. For information on how to register for the Owl Prowl, please call (905) 854-2276.

Mountsberg is located 5 km west of Campbellville, between Guelph Line and Hwy 6, just south of Hwy 401.
