Acton churches unite for mass service

Eight Acton area churches will not be worshipping in their own buildings the morning of January 30. Instead their congregations are joining together for a Service of Christian Unity to be held in the Acton Legion. The service will be held at 10:30 a.m.

Sponsored by the Acton Ministerial Association, this service is intended to bring Christians in Acton closer together and to celebrate the bond of Jesus Christ that makes them one.

"We wish to lay aside our differences and celebrate our oneness as Christian people. Christ is about unity, not disunity" stated the Rev. Andrew Asbil, the rector of St. Alban's Anglican Church.

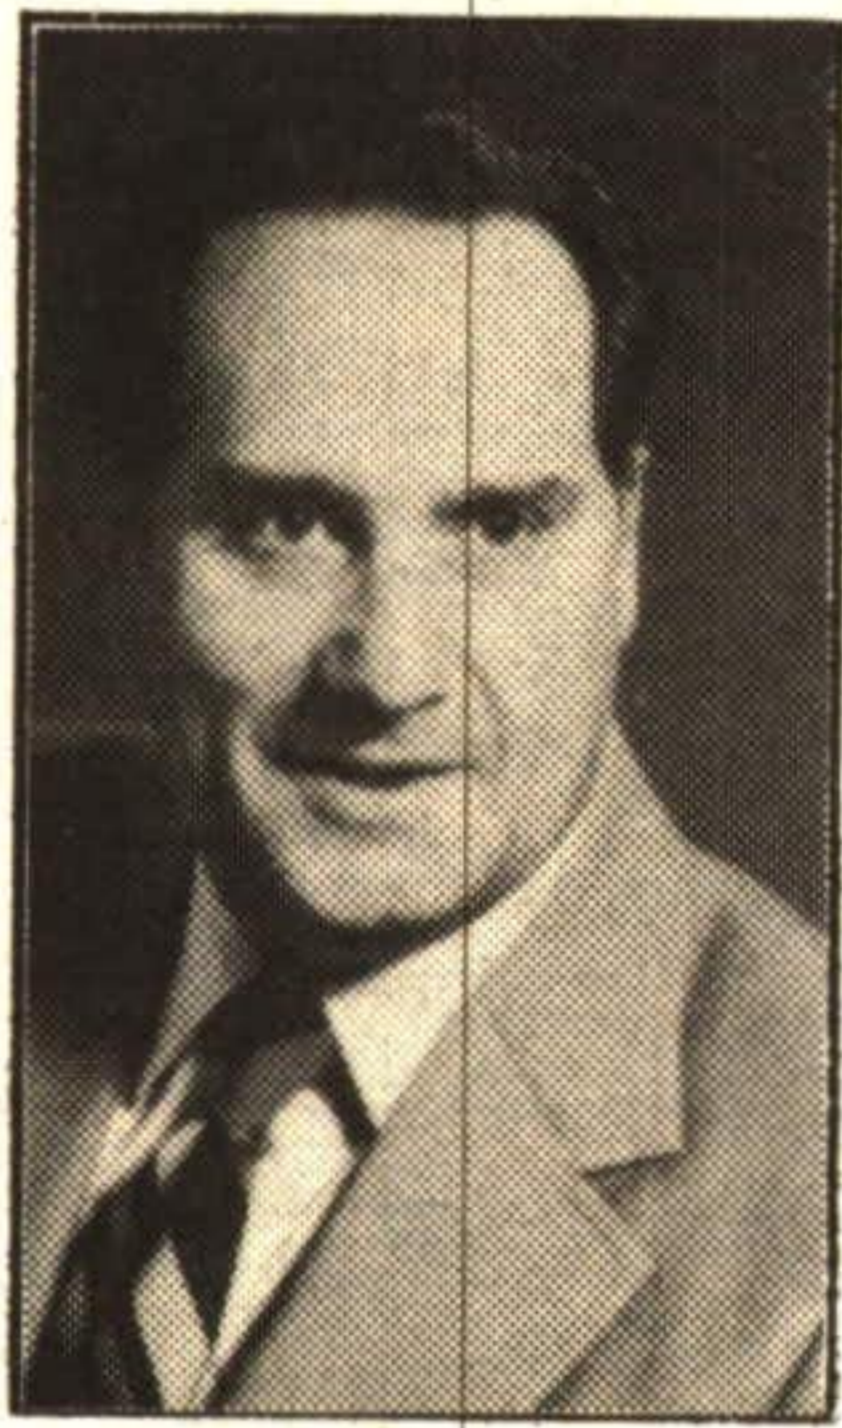

This special worship service concludes The Week of Christian Unity, celebrated by Christians around the world.

Rev. Adrian Van Giessen, the pastor of the Bethel Christian Reformed Church of Acton describes the purpose of this service this way, "We want our town to know that Jesus Christ brings people together, this service will help us show that in a concrete way."

The eight churches that are participating will not be holding regular morning services, but rather invite their members and guests to participate in this combined service. St. Alban's Anglican Church, Acton Baptist Church, Bethel Christian Reformed Church, Churchill Community Church, Evangel Pentecostal Tabernacle, Knox Presbyterian Church, the Salvation Army, and Trinity United Church will all be participating in this unique service.

The speaker for the service will be the Rev. Mariano Di Gangi, a respected pastor and preacher who has spoken in many different places around the world. He is a graduate of Westminster Theological Seminary, served Presbyterian parishes in Montreal, Hamilton, Toronto and Philadelphia and was a past president of the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada. He has written several books and recently returned from a preaching mission in Italy where he had a part in beginning five new churches. He is presently retired and living with his wife, Nitette in the Toronto suburb of Willowdale where he is also teaching pastoral studies at the Ontario Theological Seminary. His message will be entitled, Meet me at Calvary, reflecting the central work of Jesus Christ in all Christian unity.

The Divisional Youth Band of the Salvation Army, a band made up of young people from the surrounding area will be participating in the service as will a mass choir comprised of members of the various churches of Acton.

In order to encourage younger families to participate, there will be both adult-staffed nursery facilities as well as an exciting children's program for the younger ones in attendance.

In order to hold the expected large turnout, the service will be held in the Acton Legion.

In the words of Rev. Claude West, the pastor of Evangel Pentecostal Tabernacle "this service will bring the Christian community of our town together in a way that has never been done before in Acton."

Everyone is welcome!
