

Immanuel Lutheran begins team ministry today

The members of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Windsor Rd. and Carole St. in Georgetown, begin a significant change to their ministry today (Jan. 23) as they installed Dave Heimpel as their director of Christian Outreach.

Originally from the Stratford area, Heimpel was trained for his work as a lay parish worker in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and in the 10 years since then has served congregations in Kitchener, Waterloo, and Goderich. Heimpel will be working with Pastor Fritz Schmitt to help bring people into a relationship with Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour. He will be training members of the congregation to join him in this effort.

He, his wife Linda, and their son Jamie reside now on Pennington Cres. and look forward to their time here in Halton Hills, growing with the community.

Immanuel serves members living in Halton Hills, as well as Milton and the surrounding areas.

W.I. learns about herb curing

The first meeting of the Bannockburn Womens' Institute was held in the Common Room at 17 Elizabeth Dr. Apartments in Acton. Ten residents, nine members, and two visitors were present to hear a very interesting talk by Annie Kerkhof of Willow Lane Natural Foods.

She told us of the many benefits of taking herbs to keep ourselves in top physical shape. Many of our forefathers used herbs to cure common ailments. Annie brought along some bottles of herbs and pamphlets to show us. The ladies enjoyed her talk very much and thanked her appropriately.

The members then went to Isabel McDonald's place for the business meeting. Roll Call, My Favorite Healthy Food, was answered by all, which made everyone hungry.

A donation was made to a family who lost all in a house fire. Plans were made for some of the ladies to attend the workshop in Fergus in February. The motto was read by Isabel, At Days End.

Dessert was served by Gerta Potzel, a nutritious, low-fat, low sugar brunch cake and apple sauce. It was delicious. A social time followed. Courtesies were given by Annie Hollis. See you at Ruth Linham's place on February 8.

EVA MAIDMENT

Baseball fan turns 90

A birthday party was held for Eva Maidment on January 2 in the party room of 8 Durham St.

Approximately, 175 family members and friends were on hand to give Eva their best wishes. Halton Hills mayor, Russ Miller attended the function and presented her with a letter opener, a pin, and a plaque.

Birthday wishes were also extended to Eva from her birth place of Leeds, England, and plaques were sent to her from Prime Minister Jean Chretien, Ontario premier Bob Rae and Ontario Liberal leader Lyn McLeod.

An added bonus to Eva's birthday, was a phone call from her favorite Blue Jay ball player Robbie Alomar, extending his birthday greetings to her. She was ecstatic.

Asked what it felt like to turn 90, her answer was, "It's the best birthday I ever had, I'm as happy as a lark."

Happy Birthday Eva.
