CVCA elects new executive

The Credit Valley Conservation Authority (CVCA) elected Mississauga councillor Harold Kennedy as its 1994 chairman in an uncontested vote at their authority meeting Thursday night.

Paul Dray of Erin was elected vice chairman.

Six members were also chosen for the 1994 executive committee. They remain, Fred Wilson of Orangeville, Frank Dale of Mississauga, John Hutton of Brampton, Andy King of Erin Township, Susan Fennell of Brampton and Dick Pallett of Caledon.

"I'm honored to served as CVCA chairman for 1994 and look forward to the challenge ahead," said Kennedy. "The importance of getting back to our grassroots in 1994 can't be over stated."

The 1994 preliminary budget estimates were also released with a projected 0.85 per cent decrease in levy over last year.

"In these times of fiscal restraints we are trying hard to set an example by holding the line on our spending even though our work load is increasing," says CVCA acting general manager Ken Owen. "Unfortunately the Preliminary Budget is based on unknown approvals for capital projects and does not deal with further rumored cuts at the provincial level. However we are pleased to announce that we are committed to reaching our budget targets without increasing any of our fees in 1994."

The CVCA has accomplished a zero increase by eliminating some programs, reducing its permanent and temporary work force, reducing benefits to employees and freezing wages as part of the provincial Social Contract.

A more detailed budget will be brought forward in February.

Grand opening for Solmar Homes

At Lakeside Estates in Acton, you don't have to wait for the weekend to go boating, swimming and fishing.

This lakefront community being built by Solmar Homes offers waterfront activities on a daily basis. Popular Fairy Lake is just over the back fence of the Mill St. W. location.

Some lots offer a view of the water from the master bedroom and family room. In the evening, you can watch the sun set over the lake.

"This community offers a recreational lifestyle within a comfortable commuting distance of downtown Toronto," said Benny Marotta, president of Solmar Homes.

The grand opening of the site was Saturday (Jan. 29). Prices start at $159,900 for a two-storey home on a 50-ft. lot.

Buyers within the first three weeks can take advantage of a financing package offering 6 per cent financing for five years.

This means that with 25 per cent down, you can carry the monthly payments on The Halton for about $750 a month, a payment guaranteed not to rise for five years. First-time buyers can get in with just a 5 per cent down payment, which is $8,000.

Even homes that don't back directly onto the open space surrounding the 67-acre lake are just three-minute walk from Prospect Park. Blue Springs Golf Course, home of the Canadian PGA, is just around the corner as well.

"To take advantage of this recreational lifestyle, we have created some California style plans which reflect the community's vacation spirit," said Nick Falvo, executive vice-president of Solmar Homes. "These homes have large open rooms, second floor galleries and design features such as two-way fireplaces. And in order to make everyone happy, we also have traditional style two-storeys and bungalows."

Another feature of Solmar's designs, is the home office. Because the at-home office has quickly become part of many people's lifestyles, Solmar includes plans for a home office in every design.

The Lakeside Estates sales office is located on the northeast corner of Trafalgar Rd. and Steeles Ave. Sales office hours are 1-8 p.m. Monday to Friday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. weekends.

For more information, call the Solmar Homes sales office at (905) 878-3004 or the head office at (905) 850-3161.
