Wonderland auditions

Paramount Canada's Wonderland is set to begin its annual talent search for 200 singers, dancers, actors, variety performers, characters, and technicians as the country's premier theme park prepares for its 14th season.

The eight-city audition tour begins February 7th in Oakville and travels to Windsor, London, Toronto, Maple, Kingston, and Ottawa before winding down in Montreal on February 16th. The Canadian tour is part of Paramount Parks' overall search for more than 750 individuals to perform at its five North American theme parks.

Roles being cast at Paramount Canada's Wonderland include singers and dancers for high-energy revues, Paramount walk-around characters such as Klingons from Star Trek, and Hanna Barbera favorites such as Fred Flintstone, Barney Rubble, Yogi Bear, Scooby-Doo and more. Additionally, Paramount Canada's Wonderland is looking for atmosphere performers such as mimes, magicians, and jugglers to entertain throughout the park.

For detailed information regarding specific times and locations of auditions near you, call the Paramount Canada's Wonderland audition hotline at 1-905-832-7454.

It's a family affair in Promenade All!

Georgetown Little Theatre's Promenade All! opens February 18th at the John Elliott Theatre. It could easily have been called The Family Business, since the story centres around four generations running a family business from 1895-1972.

The play spans 77 years and follows each new owner as he tries to put his stamp on the family firm. This is a drama but it has lots of humor as we get a glimpse of each generation and its thoughts about education, sex, religion and the role of women. There is plenty of friction between fathers and sons, as well as husbands and wives, as they pass the reins on to the next generation.

Tickets range from $7 - $10 and are on sale Tuesday and Thursday, 4-8 p.m. at the theatre for February 18, 19, 23, 24, 25, and 26.

When not busy with his route, Kyle can be found playing hockey or collecting hockey cards. Kyle was hoping to save his money to buy some new compact discs.
