Minor atom Raiders sweep by Rangers

In the opening round of the OMHA playoffs Georgetown's P.D.S. Minor Atom Raiders showed they have the right stuff as they swept their opponents, the Oakville Rangers, in three straight games in the best of five series.

With home ice advantage the Raiders handily took Game 1, 4-1. They led in scoring throughout the game, starting with the first goals by Ronny Larocque from Scott Pike.

In the second period, they added another two markers, sandwiching Oakville's lone goal. Raider scorers were Kyle Hotham and Ryan Busby, and picking up assists were Nick Black, Hotham, and Larocque. Late in the game, defencemen Ryan Field claimed the fourth Georgetown goal, assisted by Graham McCulloch.

Game 2 in Oakville proved to be a tense nail-biter as the Raiders eventually edged out their host, 3-2. The Rangers hit the scoreboard first but Mark Fantegrossi converted passes from Busby and Larocque to even up the score. In the second, the Raiders got the go-ahead when Brad Snow redirected a nice feed from Hotham, who in turn had the puck passed up from Field.

In the third, Oakville tied it up and continued to bombard goalie Chris Henderson who consistently fended off the attacks with great saves. The Raiders broke nine minutes of 2-2 deadlock when Fantegrossi took Busby's pass at the blue line and then shot in his own rebound, beating the Ranger goalie with 2:14 remaining.

Game 3 at Alcott was do-or-die for the Rangers, but they were unable to turn on the pressure, as Georgetown beat them 3-1. Hotham notched two goals, from passes by Field (2), McCulloch and Larocque. Late in the third, the insurance goal came on McCulloch's wraparound, helped out by Pike and Larocque. Goaltender Ryan LaRose came up with some spectacular stretching saves.

In the next round of OMHA playoffs the Raiders face off against St. Catharines.
