

Minor novice Raiders ousted by Milton

The McNally Construction Minor Novice Raiders lost three straight games to Milton in the opening round of OMHA playdowns.

After suffering a 3-1 loss in Milton, the Raiders played host to their opponents at Memorial Arena on January 26.

Milton was leading Georgetown 2-0 when Marcus Sargent fired an unassisted shot from the blue line to make it 2-1. Milton went up 3-1 in the third, but the Raiders didn't give up.

Persistence around the net earned

Steven Kogon a goal at 3:32 with Ryan Hirtle and Matt Hills collecting assists. It was an exciting finish but the Raiders couldn't put any more points on the scoreboard. Final score - Milton 3 Georgetown 2.

On January 29, the Raiders and their fans traveled to Milton for the third game of the series.

It was a must win situation for the young Raiders and unfortunately the team again came up short. The game was scoreless until late in the second period when Milton drew first blood.

This gave them the momentum they needed and they went up 3-0 early in the third.

The Raiders played strong, battling back with a goal in the dying minutes of the game.

Jordan Armstrong scored on a great pass from Howie Martin. Final score - Milton 3 Georgetown 1.

It was an excellent series which kept the fans on the edge of their seats.

Acton midgets upset Fergus

The Acton Travel midgets have advanced past the first round of the Ontario playdowns, rallying from one game down to eliminate rival Fergus in their best of five series.

Fergus claimed game one 4-2 on home ice, but from that point on the Travel team took control. They claimed a 3-2 win on home ice and then took control of the series with a 5-3 win in Fergus on Super Bowl Sunday.

Acton finished off their rivals with an impressive 6-2 win at home on Monday night.

Acton coach R.J. Farnworth was pleased with the effort by his club in games three and four. "We got an excellent effort from the whole team," stated Farnworth. "We outskated and outworked Fergus."

In the 5-3 win it was Brad Cripps leading the way for the midget Sabres as he scored two and assisted on a third. Wilf Couling, Josh Davies and Michael Forbes netted the other Acton goals. Davies picked up two assists while Darryl Jones, Joe Turcotte, Dwayne Rhynold and Couling earned single helpers.

In Monday's series-clincher the Travel crew claimed a 6-2 win. "We stuck to the game plan," said Farnworth, following the win. "We wanted it more."

Six different players shared in the scoring for Acton with Stephen Forbes, Turcotte, Jones, Rhynold, Chris Muir and Rob Tiralongo all firing markers. Geoff Heinz, Jones, Stephen Forbes, Michael Forbes and Tiralongo all earned assists.

There is no rest for Acton. They travelled to Hespeler on Friday evening to begin the second round of playdowns. Game two is slated for the Acton Community Centre on Tuesday evening at 9 p.m.

Peewee teams battle

Top house-league teams from across Southern Ontario are currently vying for top honors at this weekend's 24th annual Acton Peewee House-League Hockey Tournament.

The tournament featured 24 teams including those from Acton, Georgetown, Brampton, Oshawa, Orangeville, Oakville, Chinguacousy, King City, Simcoe, Vaughan, Dundas, Flamboro, Erin, Orillia, Kincardine, Peterborough, Wexford, Hagersville and Riverside.

The C Division championship will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday, the A Division finals begin at 5:15 p.m. and the B Division title will be up for grabs at 6:30 p.m. Closing ceremonies will follow the final games.
