Teams gearing up for bantam tourney

Preparations for the 34th Annual International Bantam Hockey Tournament are well under way.

The tournament, staged at Georgetown's Alcott and Memorial arenas, will begin Friday March 11th, 1994, run through the spring school break and finish up with the Grand Championship game on March 20th.

The steering committee chaired by Dave Curry are shooting for 44 teams this year and to date have received confirmation from over thirty centres including representatives from the MTHL, the Ottawa Valley and South Western Ontario.

Once again "AAA", "AA", "A" and "B & C" classified teams will compete in four divisions. There is also a possibility of a girls division being added to this year's event.

The Bantam Tournament Committee thank the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120, the Lions Club, the Kinsmen Club, the Georgetown Market Place, the Optimist Club, the Hockey Heritage Council and the Kinsmen for their support and sponsorship of this event. Without your help it couldn't be done.

Halton Hills will be well represented this year. The Dan Bodanis Bantam Raiders and a Bantam Select team will represent Georgetown. Acton will be represented by the Bantam Firefighters and the zone Halton Hurricanes will play in the "AAA" division.

Please set some time aside to visit the tournament. You won't be disappointed.

Tourney committee searching for memorabilia

For promotional purposes Georgetown Minor Hockey and the Bantam Tournament Committee are seeking old Georgetown rep sweaters dating back to the 50's, 60's, and 70's or any hockey sweaters of the era from 1936 to 1949.

We are also looking for old gloves, skates, hockey sticks etc., dating from the earlier years of Minor Hockey in Georgetown, 1936 to 1950.

All articles are for photographic layouts only and will be promptly returned to donors.

Please call Dave Curry at 873-7777 or Bill Briggs at 877-5425 if you have anything from this period in Georgetown's Hockey History.
