GUIGNARD, Adele - In loving memory of a special grandmother who passed away, February 10, 1993. Together forever you and me, In my heart you'll always be. Use to go out for a walk, Or just have a quiet little talk. Being with you was so right, Watching the stars in the night, Counting them one by one, Oh being with you was so much fun. Even when the trees and the weather changed, My love for you will always remain, Like a balloon floating in the sky, You're always there, a picture in my eye. But now you've gone so faraway, Oh Grandma, rest in peace each and everyday. Like the rain falling down from the sky, The tears drip from the corner of my eye. I'm thinking and thinking of you, As the days go by through and through, Oh, Grandma I will always love you. Sadly missed by grandchildren, Lisa, Claude and Mark.

I REMEMBER

George Brandford I remember The good days How happy we both were When all the time in this world Was ours to cherish forever I will never forget you!

I remember Days when I was down You were always there to lift my fallen spirit Just to hold you was enough To set my nagging thoughts aside I will never forget you!

I remember That fateful day in February When God took you away from me So now I must struggle on alone With only memories left to savor I will never forget you! Love you always. Your wife Maxine and family.

PEAVOY, Thomas Howard, In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather who passed away suddenly February 10, 1987.
