

Local area set to observe World Day of Prayer March 4

Nassagaweya and Halton Hills join over 3,000 communities across Canada in observing World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 4.

The morning service will be hosted by Ebenezer United Church with all churches in the area invited to participate. Coffee will be served at 9:30 a.m. with the service commencing at 10 a.m.

This year's ecumenical service was prepared by Christian Women of Palestine. With the theme, Go, See and Act, the writers call on Christians around the world to join with them in prayers for peace with justice in their homeland.

Three major faith traditions — Judaism, Islam and Christianity — all have roots in the Middle East and all peoples of the region are included in the prayers. With the ongoing struggle in peace negotiations, there is great need for prayers and compassion for the people of this region.

World Day of Prayer is a global, ecumenical movement of "informed prayer and prayerful action" observed on the first Friday in March each year. Over 170 countries participate in a common service which has been translated into thousands of languages and dialects. In Canada, the World Day of Prayer is sponsored by the Womens' Inter-Church Council of Canada, a national council with representatives from 11 denominations.

Ebenezer United Church is located on the Guelph Line between 20 and 25 Sideroads, and has handicap access. Everyone is welcome.

World Day of Prayer services are also being held at the Churchill Community Church, 7:30 p.m., March 4. Speaker is Mrs. Helen Pasanen. Nursery/childcare and transportation provided. A lunch follows the service.

The Christian Reformed Church invites you to their service at 7:30 p.m., March 4. They are located at 11611 Trafalgar Rd.

World Day of Prayer will be held in Norval United Church, March 4, 10 a.m. for coffee hour prior to service. All ladies of the area are invited.

BRSS hosts parents' meeting

Bishop Reding Secondary School Parents Association will be holding its monthly meeting on March 1, 7:30 p.m. in the Resource Centre at the school.

All parents are invited to get involved in their child's education and have some input into the school system. Your support is most welcome.

FRESH TOMATO AND WILD MUSHROOM PIZZA

(Serving: Four)

Dough Ingredients:

- 1/2 tablespoon dry activated yeast
- 3/4 cup warm water
- 2 cups all purpose flour
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon olive oil

Topping Ingredients:

- 2 tomatoes
- 6 ounces mixed wild mushrooms (i.e. portabello, cremini, shiitake)
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 6 ounces low fat mozzarella, grated
- 3 tablespoons parmesan cheese, grated
- 4 teaspoons chopped fresh basil
- freshly ground black pepper
- extra-virgin olive oil

For the Pizza Shells:

Dissolve yeast in warm water. In a mixer with a paddle attachment, combine dissolved yeast, one cup of the flour and salt. Add the olive oil and continue to mix for one minute, reduce speed and mix in the second cup of flour. Place dough in a bowl in a warm place and allow to rise until doubled in volume. Punch down dough and divide into four pieces. Roll each piece in a circular shape, brush with olive oil and allow to rise in a warm place for 15 minutes. Dough can be grilled, turning once, or baked in a 450° oven until light brown.

For the Topping:

Sauté the mushrooms in olive oil in a nonstick pan. Set aside to cool. Slice tomatoes 1/4" thick and divide tomatoes and mushrooms among the pizza shells. Drizzle a small amount of olive oil on top and season with the fresh pepper and basil. Top with cheeses and bake in a 450° oven 15-20 minutes or until cheese is melted and pizzas are hot.
