McNally novices give Chinguacousy blues

The Georgetown McNally Construction minor novice Raiders travelled to Chinguacousy last Monday for the first game of their Tri-county play-off series. The Raiders gave Chinguacousy the blues and came home with a restounding 5-0 win.

Goaltender Alex Macleod was outstanding between the pipes, making many excellent saves. Chinguacousy held the Raiders to one goal during the first and second periods, but Georgetown exploded with 4 goals in the third. Scoring for the Raiders were Bradley Norton and Joel Hamilton with a pair each and Jordan Armstrong with a single. Assists were earned by Steven Kogan (3), Armstrong (2), Hamilton, Jordan Cole, Eric Euteneier, Matt Hiltz and Kyle Kennery. Excellent offense and defense by the entire team earned them this victory.

Restructuring ?

The Minor Hockey Restructuring Committee of the Ontario Hockey Federation is currently reviewing the structure of Minor Hockey within its jurisdiction.

The Committee wishes to ensure that the needs of all participants are met, so far as they may be, in a structure that is responsive to the realities and lifestyles of the present day. They invite written comments and submissions from individuals, especially the parents of hockey players, clubs and associations, to assist them in the task. All replies should be sent to: The Honourable Mr. Justice David Watt, President, Ontario Hockey Federation, 1415 Lawrence Avenue West, Ste. 211 Toronto, Ontario M6L 1A9. (Telefax: 416-245-0542) For further information: Mr. Justice David Watt (416) 245-5311 or John R. Gardner (416) 245-0542.

Memorabilia hunt on

For promotional purposes Georgetown Minor Hockey and the Bantam Tournament Committee are seeking old Georgetown rep sweaters dating back to the 50's, 60's, and 70's or any hockey sweaters of the era from 1936 to 1949. They are also looking for old gloves, skates, hockey sticks etc., dating from the earlier years of Minor Hockey in Georgetown, 1936 to 1950. All articles are for photographic layouts only and will be promptly returned to donors. Please call Dave Curry at 873-7777 or Bill Briggs at 877-5425 if you have anything from this period in Georgetown's Hockey History.
