Webbs celebrate 50th anniversary

Pinegrove Community Club honoured Keith and Ethel Webb on their recent 50th wedding anniversary. President Bill Brander, in his remarks, said how grateful Pinegrove had been for their flowers for lucky draws for many years. Webb's Flowers have always been community minded giving to charity groups, farm organizations, and church events.

Spencer Wilson presented Keith and Ethel with a gift certificate for dinner at the Chateau. Both responded with thanks.

Following the presentation, 10 tables of euchre were played. Winners were Val Caruso, Velma Ella, Bernice Whaley, Ray Whaley, Webb's Flowers - Pearl Whellar; Marjorie Harrison and Earl MacArthur - courtesy Brander. Lunch convenors - Pat Stark, Eleanor Robinson. Next euchre March 7.

Webb's Flowers

The staff at Webb's Flowers presented the Webb's with a gift certificate for dinner at the Chateau, with Best Wishes from Joyce Plant, Kelly Forsyth, Jean Andrews, and Dave Humphreys. The presentation took place at Webb's Flowers showroom.

Annual Meeting

Norval United Church held their annual meeting Feb. 6, after the church service. Following lunch the Sunday school children went tobogganing on Margaret Russell's hill,
