Bantam Selects fall in overtime thriller

The Georgetown House League Bantam Selects were in the 10th Annual Agincourt Civitan Invitational Tournament recently, claiming place, losing 3-2 in overtime in the final.

The first game Georgetown played was against Scarborough Malvern on Friday night.

Steve Sheppard opened the scoring for our side in the first period unassisted. Malvern tied it up a couple of minutes later on the power play, however that was all they would get, thanks to great goaltending from Brad Kouyoumjian and Kevin Humeniski. Brian Martin made it 2-1 Georgetown in the second from Mike Silvello. Georgetown then opened up in the third with four goals from Steve Gibbons, Keith Hunt, Brian Martin and Sam Butt. Assists went to Sean Durkin, Aaron Dunlop, Sean Dunlop and Steve Gibbons.

Final score was 6-1.

Georgetown's second game was a defensive struggle with all goaltenders on both sides playing great. Steve Gibbons scored for Georgetown late in the second period from Aaron Dunlop for the only goal of the game as Georgetown went on to defeat Kitchener 1-0.

The locals then faced Point Edward (Sarnia) in the semi-final on Sunday morning. Point Edward had beat out a tough Guelph team on Saturday.

In the second period the Raiders opened up for four goals in a span of one minute and 22 seconds. Steve Gibbons from Jason Moore, Steve Sheppard from Mike Silvello and Sam Butt, and Sam Butt with two unassisted. Point Edward scored once to end the period 4-1.

In the third, Georgetown hit first again. Mike Silvello from Steve Sheppard and Keith Hunt.

Point Edward pulled their goalie and struck twice making the score 5-3, before Aaron Dunlop hit the empty net from Jason Moore. Final score 6-3.

The final game was a nailbiter for the fans. Georgetown against Pickering for the championship.

Pickering got one goal in the first period and another late in the second to make it 2-0, but Georgetown bounced right back and scored 18 seconds later. Mike Silvello from Aaron Dunlop.

Georgetown seemed tired and it appeared the game was over, until Jason Moore scored from Steve Gibbons with two seconds remaining and Brad Kouyoumjian pulled for the extra attacker.

On to overtime with both sides back and forth, with both goalies outstanding. Pickering somehow managed to squeak one in past Brad with only 1:17 left in overtime to win 3-2.

The squad is coached by Dave Martin, Jim Moore and Bill Maveal.
