615 Births

It's a Boy!
Buote - Mark and Trisha (nee MacPherson) formerly of Georgetown, are ecstatic to announce the early arrival (6 Weeks) of Connor Bryan Buote, weighing 4lbs., 7 ozs., 17 1/2 inches long. The Lord looked down from a clear blue sky And sent us a miracle in a wink of an eye And on a warm gentle breeze, this precious wee boy Was born out of love, this bundle of joy. His sparkling blue eyes, and his wee baby nose, Ten tiny fingers and 10 tiny toes, With hair that's as soft as the down of a dove, The face of an angel, he's just meant to be loved. This small little son is more precious than gold, The pride in Mom and Dad is a sight to behold. May all the angels bless you and keep you from harm, And may God always carry you in the crook of his arm.

Connor is named for his great Grandfather Connor Buote and for a dear friend and cousin Bryan. Proud grandparents are Lynda and Walter MacPherson of Georgetown and Shirley and David Buote of Brockville. Great grandmothers, Helen Morris of Georgetown and Edna Buote of Tignish, P.E.I., welcome Connor with open arms. Aunts, uncles and cousins are waiting in the wings for Connor's homecoming. Many thanks go to the doctors, and the OB staff at the Ottawa Civic Hospital for their skill and help in this precious birth. We love you Mark, Trisha and Connor Bryan. May God Bless you!
