Attention poets

The National Library of Poetry has announced that $12,000 in prizes will be awarded this year to over 250 poets in the North American Open Poetry Contest.

The deadline for the contest is March 31, 1994. The contest is open to everyone and entry is FREE.

Any poet, whether previously published or not, can be a winner. Every poem entered also has a chance to be published in a deluxe, hardbound anthology.

To enter, send ONE original poem, any subject and any style, to The National Library of Poetry, 11419 Cronridge Dr., P.O. box 704-YF, Owings Mills, MD 21117.

The poem should be no more than 20 lines, and the poet's name and address should appear on the top of the page.

Entries must be postmarked by March 31, 1994. A new contest opens April 1, 1994.

Summer arts program at Sheridan

Sharpen your drawing pencils, hone your artistic skills and head on down to Sheridan College on March 14, 1994 when registration begins for the renowned Summer School of the Arts.

Staffed by nationally and internationally respected artists, crafts people, designers and industry leaders, Sheridan College's Summer School of the Arts offers a diverse array of over 80 credit and non-credit courses, workshops and post-graduate certificate programs.

Whether you're a professional looking for polish or a beginner looking for basics, there's a course or workshop to meet every need and skill level. Areas of study include book arts, business of the arts, ceramics, drawing, painting, glass, literature, Macintosh computer graphics, media arts, printmaking, sculpture, textiles, fibre, theatre, woodworking and furniture.

The Summer School of the Arts also continues to offer a series of exciting teen workshops geared specifically towards the interests of youths between the ages of 14 and 18.

The hands-on programs offered at the Summer School of the Arts aim to stimulate experimentation, interaction and skill development through techniques ranging from demonstrations and discussions to slide lectures and field trips.

The Summer School of the Arts offers courses and workshops from May through August with day tours to cultural sites and events continuing into September. Be sure to visit the Summer School of the Arts booth at the Faculty of The Arts Open House, Show and Sale on the weekend of April 23 to 24, 1994 where staff will be on hand to dispense information and take registration.

For further information or to be placed on our mailing list, please contact The Summer School of the Arts at (905) 845-9430 ext. 2610. Early registration is recommended as some courses fill immediately.

The Summer School of the Arts is located at Sheridan College, 1430 Trafalgar Road, one mile north of the Q.E.W. in Oakville.
