Georgetown District High School swimmers finished off an outstanding 1993/94 season last weekend with an impressive fifth place team showing at the All-Ontario OFSAA finals in Sudbury.

The three-day meet included participants from over 140 schools across the province. For the GDHS Rebels, the meet featured a bronze medal (third) performance for the boys and an eighth place finish for the girls.

"It was just a great team performance for Georgetown, and a great season," said Rebels' swim coach Debbie Knoepfli.

After a big Halton finals performance which included three gold medals, senior boys' swimmer Glen Oomen led the way for Georgetown again at OFSAA with two golds including one in the 50 metre freestyle - which he swam in 24.19 seconds to set the only new OFSAA record for 1994.

Oomen, Kevin Taylor, Matt Deruchie and Robert Weston took first in the 200m freestyle relay, finishing in 1:41.28 minutes.

Weston also claimed gold with his 27.79 second finish in the 50m butterfly. He also took 9th in the 100m intermediate medley. Taking silver in the 200m freestyle was Taylor, who also finished in the top 10 in the 50m freestyle.

Heading up the girls team was Sabrina Bassett who captured silver in the senior girls' 200m freestyle with a time of 2:23.52 and in the senior girls' 100m freestyle with a time of 1:04.50.

Andrea Herner finished sixth in the senior girls' 100m backstroke.

Kristen Herner, Micah Zarnke and Leigh Shillington all placed in the top 15 in their individual events while also competing in individual races were Andrea Herner, Melissa Discenza and Justine Colton.

The junior boys' relay team (Andrew Gibson, Jason Morden, Fraser Charles and Steve Masters) finished 10th in the 200m freestyle and 14th in the 200m medley while the junior girls' squad (Tracy Tabuchi, Jenny Grant, Lisa Mathiasen and Melissa Discenza) took 12th place in the 200m freestyle and 14th in the 200m medley.

In other relay action, the senior girls (Sabrina Bassett, Justine Colton, Kristen Herner and Leigh Shillington) finished 14th in the 200m medley while the senior boys (Trevor Charles, Micah Zarnke, Dave Sands and Matt Deruchie) also placed 14th in the 200m medley.

The senior girls' team of Karen Mathiasen, Jen Apgar, Jenny Grant and Andrea Herner took 32nd place in the 200m freestyle.

Novice Raiders suffer playoff loss

The Georgetown Major Novice Raiders traveled to Orangeville for their 3rd game in the Tri-County, round-robin series. The Raiders played hard but suffered a disappointing 5-3 loss.

The first period had the Raider squad fall behind 3-0. Orangeville's goals were scored at 6:54, 2:16, 1:05.

The second period had the Raiders come out flying and shut down Orangeville for two goals bringing the game closer at 3-2. The Raiders first goal was fired in by Jeff Boyce at 6:39. Brett Velten and Scott Rostrup rallied together for the assists. Billy McDonald brought the Raiders within one at 1:32. Matt Knoepfli set up McDonald for the assist.

Orangeville once again gained their two goal lead late in the third at 3:39. Kevin Oulds shortened the Raiders opponents lead once again to 1 goal at 1:24 - unassisted. Goaltender Donnie Lane was pulled at 1:03 for the extra attacker. The Raiders did a great job keeping the play in Orangeville's zone, but Orangeville managed to get one by the Raiders to land in the open mesh at 0:10 seconds before the final horn.

The Major Novice Raider squad traveled to Oakville March 9, claiming a win.

Oakville took a 1-0 first frame lead but the second period had the entire Raider squad adding a little more hustle. Andrew McGourty's skates were smoking as he picked up a pass from Rusty Parsons to carry it up and crack it in at 6:58 to tie with Oakville squeaking on by at 8:26. Billy McDonald clinches the winner at 5:35. Jeff Boyce and Scott Rostrup teamed together to claim the assists. Rusty Parsons nicely nabs an open net goal at 0:09. Billy McDonald and Scott Rostrup worked together to help clinch the Raider victory. Donnie Lane had a great game making some awesome saves.

The Raiders next home is set for today (Sunday) at 5 p.m.

Novices advance to finals

The Acton Nellis Construction novices have made their way to the Ontario Minor Hockey Association Zone championships after disposing of Six Nations in three straight games in semi-final action, including a 6-3 triumph on Wednesday.

The win was the ninth in a row for the Acton squad as they look towards a series with Tillsonburg for OMHA bragging rights.

Acton had little trouble disposing of Elora and Fergus before meeting up with Six Nations, claiming wins of 8-0 and 9-1 in the opening two games.

They braved bad weather conditions on Wednesday to make the trek to Ohsweken in hopes of ending the series.

The Nellis team took control early and built up a 5-0 third period lead before allowing Six Nations to get on the board with three late goals.

Andrew Pembleton iced the contest with his 50th of the season, into an empty net. He also added two assists.

John Field led the Acton attack with two goals and an assist while Mike Dube counted a goal and an assist. Adam Brouillard and Steve Atkinson netted the others while Chris Jowett, Sean Kirk, Shawn Prentice and Matt Wolfer.

Acton is now set to do battle with Tillsonburg for the OMHA Zone title.

Game one of the series is set for Tillsonburg on Sunday afternoon with game two at the Acton community Centre next Saturday at 4:30 p.m.

Midgets trail

The Georgetown Sunny Acre Farms Midget Raiders fell behind in their Ontario Minor Hockey Association semi-final series with Port Elgin, dropping a 7-2 decision at Gordon Alcott Arena on Thursday evening.

The Raiders had tied the eight point series at five each with a 3-1 win in Port Elgin on Monday night.

In game six of the series the two sides played to a 1-1 first period draw with Tim Diardichuk firing the Georgetown marker unassisted.

Port Elgin unloaded for five second period goals while the Raiders could manage only a single off the stick of Will Pomp. Mike Bahr earn an assist on the goal.

Port Elgin added an insurance marker in the third.

In the Monday game Chad Hughes recorded the victory with a great performance between the pipes. Steve Onoprijenko netted a pair for Georgetown while teammate Will Pomp notched a single.

Drawing assists were Jason Quinn, Kevin Lumb and Mark Boucher.

Port Elgin will hope to clinch the series at home on Saturday afternoon while the Raiders hope to force an eighth game.

Athletes of the Week

Georgetown District High School, Athletes of the Week are Lisa McDonald and Tim Shier. Lisa was chosen for her performance on the junior Rebels volleyball team, which led the team to a first place finish in the Halton finals. Tim was selected for his outstanding win at the Halton skiing finals, where he captured a first place overall finish. Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Stephanie Jones and Matt Boycott. Both were members of the AHS ski team. Stephanie had a strong 13th place finish at the Halton finals at Glen Eden, while Matt finished 29th at the same meet.
