

Proplastex atoms earn draw

With the Ontario playdowns a distant memory, the Acton Proplastex Atoms started league playoffs with mixed results.

It didn't help that their all star net-minder Chad Greenwood met with a freak accident - almost severing one of his fingers at public skating - prior to the start of the playoffs. This forced the coaching staff to utilize super sub Ryan Turpin who usually represents one of their best offensive defensemen.

However in game one, the local boys hung in tough till midway through the third when a dubious penalty allowed Grand Valley to move ahead and ultimately win the contest 5-3.

In fact, Acton had built up a 2-0 lead going into the second period thanks to an unassisted wrist shot by Darren Banks and a goal by pesky Jeff Schouten which Adam Bosch and Jared Hornick assisted on.

However Grand Valley fought back and carried a 3-2 advantage going in to the final frame. David Iacocca with helpers from Jeff Payne and Thomas Mahon gave Acton a ray of hope till the fateful penalty sealed their chance of winning.

Back in Acton in game two, a fired up Proplastex squad totally dominated both ends of the rink but could only get a single marker past the Elora goalkeeper to tie them 1-1.

In fact, it was Elora who defended the slim lead till well into the third frame.

Finally, their rangy centerman Jeffrey Payne fired in the tying goal on the tail end of an Elora infraction. Thomas Payne set up the Payne marker.
