Insurance Brokers support Scouts

Scout Brian Solomon receives a cheque for $300 from Barry Dunlop, Mandy Armstrong-Rogers and Norman J. Freethy of the Insurance Brokers Association of Halton Hills. The presentation was made at the Parent and Son Banquet for 1st Glen Williams last month in St. Alban's Anglican Church Hall, Glen Williams. The money will be used for camping gear. The troop would like to go to Holland in 1995 for the World Jamboree, but the fee is $3,000 per member. Shown are Scouts and Leaders (in alphabetical order) who went to the Canadian Jamboree '93 held in Alberta: Isaac Ferguson, Paul Jorgensen, Alex Main, Josh Robbins, Matthew Rowe, Tristan Temple, Scott Watson, Jamie Watt, Jason Watt, David Zeni, John Paul Zeni and Leaders Scout Al Watt and Alex Furness.

OUR APOLOGIES!

When we advertised our NEW President's Choice Light Cheesecake in the Easter Mini Insider's Report, published Sunday, March 20, 1994, we expected to supply both Original and Strawberry Swirl flavors. Unfortunately, due to unforeseen circumstances, only the Strawberry Swirl will be available. We apologize to our customers for any inconvenience this may cause.

President's Choice.
