Novice Raiders split playoff battles

The Georgetown Major Novice Raiders split a pair of Tri-county playoff games last week, downing Orangeville 5-2 and falling 2-1 to Woolwich.

The Raiders took control from the opening face-off against Orangeville. Jeff Boyce set the pace at 5:34 with Kevin Oulds netting the assist. Billy McDonald was next in line for the Raiders at 2:09. Matt Knoepfli and Vince Burke helped close down the period.

Second period started with Brett Velten putting the Raiders ahead 4-0 notching two goals at 7:35 and 3:50. Jeff Boyce and Rusty Parsons played hard for the assists. Orangeville got their only two goals of the game at 2:00 and 0:07.

The final frame was scoreless until Orangeville goalie was pulled for an extra attacker. Rusty Parsons fired one home gining the Raiders a 5-2 win.

The Novice Raiders hosted Woolwich on Tuesday night.

The Raiders played solid keeping the first and second period scoreless.

In the third period the Raiders took the lead at 12:06. Rusty Parsons scored from Brent Beaumont and Billy McDonald chipping in for the assists. Woolwich squeezed by the Raiders netting goals at 3:05 and 1:15.

Despite pulling the netminder the Raiders couldn't clinch the victory.

The Raiders travelled to Oshawa for the Little NHL Tournament on March 17, 18, 19 and, hopefully the finals on the 20.

OMHA spring clinics

Several coaching clinics are being organized to help people who are interested in coaching as well as becoming a trainer for local minor hockey teams.
