Playoff hopes alive for Proplastex atoms

The Acton Proplastex Atoms must love adversity!

With their backs to the wall after their first two Tri-County playoff games and without their number one goalie, Chad Greenwood in the lineup, Acton peeled off three consecutive play down victories.

In game one, super sub netminder Ryan Turpin was solid between the pipes as Acton dusted off Arthur to the tune of 2-0.

The always hard checking Tigers constantly put Acton off their game until pesky centre Jeff Schouten found the back of the Arthur net midway through the first period. Assisting on the play were Thomas Mahon and D.J. King.

Rugged winger Graham Marsh managed to squeeze in a ban angle shot past the Arthur goalie in the second period thanks to a helper from Jeff Payne. At that point, Acton's defence and Turpin's goal keeping preserved the win.

On Wednesday in Elora, Turpin once again performed his magic as Acton held on to win 1-0.

Acton had many scoring opportunities throughout the game but the Elora goalkeeper was equal to the task until late in the third period.

Acton capitalized on an Elora penalty as Payne scored with four minutes remaining with help from Schouten and Mahon to get the win.

Game three saw the return of Greenwood and the Arthur Tigers in Acton. Greenwood and Turpin combined to help Acton post a 5-3 win and keep their playoff hopes very much alive.

The big offensive gun for Acton was Jeff Payne who scored on his first two shifts and and potted another to complete the hat trick.

Schouten had a pair of markers including a much needed short handed goal. Marsh completed the six pack of goals for Acton.

Assists for Acton were courtesy of Stephen Monaghan, Justin Lockerbie, Jamie Warren, Kurtis Bosch, D.J. King, and Adam Bosch, the latter with a trio of helpers.
