

Wanted: talented seniors for Jubilee Concerts

Royal Bank Seniors Jubilee Concerts '94 will be held at Roy Thomson Hall, August 15-18. This sixth annual showcase for seniors celebrates talent and excellence in the performing arts and the search is on for new talent.

The producers of the annual Royal Bank Seniors' Jubilee Concerts '94, Wayne Burnett and Glenda Richards of Richburn Entertainment Inc., are searching the province for seniors groups and individuals to audition.

Last year's extravaganza featured more than 800 performers from 40 different communities. A different program is presented each day. The good time begins with lobby performances at 11:30 a.m. where audience and performers mix for informal fun. At 1 p.m. the crowd moves into the auditorium where the stage is set for pure enjoyment.

Richards says, "We are on the lookout for every type of act - tap dancers, folk dancers, cloggers and square dancers, musicians, jazz and concert bands, singers - soloists, duets, quartets and choirs, cabaret acts, comedians and novelty acts."

"The Jubilee event helps break stereotypes about seniors," Burnett adds. "It makes people realize that seniors are talented, active and energetic. These unique concerts give people an opportunity to perform for a large and appreciative audience at Roy Thomson Hall, and feel good about themselves."

To arrange an audition, please contact: Richburn Entertainment Inc., 260 Queen's Quay West, Suite 2805 Toronto, Ontario M5J 2N3. Please send your name, address, telephone number of contact and a brief description of your act (including age/age range of performers) or phone (416) 962-3819.

Deadline for applications is April 30.

Tickets call (416) 872-4255. Groups: call (416) 593-4822, ext. 225.

A man's home is his castle. Your moat may be leaking and your turret is in need of repair. Tend to family matters.

You may find that a special young person will confide in you if you do less talking and more listening. Empathize.

A co-worker may get on your last nerve. Don't be too hasty. Remember the silver lining within the dark cloud.

Someone trusts you far more than you may realize. Don't let them down. Let them know their faith is not unfounded.

Playing games with your mate will not garner any gold medals. Be honest, though your views may clash with those of a loved one's.

A new social contact could bring you the recognition you have been looking for. Concentrate on your strengths.

A conservative approach will not make great waves in your financial statement. A risky venture will be more profitable.

It may be necessary to work harder on romance if your relationship is to succeed. Give your mate the benefit of the doubt.

Spiritual growth is apt to come when you least expect it. A great loss often reminds us to treasure that which we have.

It is best to avoid a potential problem. Keep a good distance between you and certain relatives.

Don't come on too strong. Be more considerate of others when offering your opinions - you may need their support.

Your intuition is on the mark. Stick to your guns. Everything need not be carved in stone.
