

Murder mystery train weekend April 16/17

Classic Odysseys provides social setting for singles

Single, and wondering what to do for some fun? Classic Odysseys Inc. could be your answer.

Classic Odysseys Inc. organizes unique events providing a wide variety of social activities for single professionals. The company, operated by Darlene Scott was formed in response to frequent requests from many singles to do their networking in a different capacity to the bar scene and singles dances.

Classic Odysseys Inc. provides an opportunity to enjoy exciting events while meeting new people in a relaxed environment.

"We have a lot of single business people come to us looking for something different to do, and don't have the time to plan things for themselves," says Darlene. "We take care of every detail so they don't have to worry about anything."

Activities are organized at a reasonable cost and Darlene brings to the company over seven years experience in planning singles events for a local community college. Some of the activities include day trips, progressive dinners, boat cruises, horse races, bridge and euchre nights, brunches, sports activities, winery tours, vacations, barbecues, theatre, car rallies, dinner and dances, cocktails and conversation evenings, white water rafting weekends and cultural events.

On April 16 and 17, Classic

Odysseys Inc. is hosting the second annual murder mystery train weekend in New York state. The staged murder will take place on the New York & Lake Erie Railroad and singles are invited to attend to help solve the deadly crime.

"Join us for a special weekend of fun, fine food, and murder," encourages Darlene. "Discover who commits the crime on this 4 1/2 hour ride featuring a gourmet dinner."

After the murder mystery train ride all participants will return to the beautifully restored and elegantly decorated 1868 historic White Inn in Fredonia, New York for either a relaxing evening of socializing or for the night owls, there is dancing at a nearby club. The trip is an all inclusive package based on double occupancy rooms with private bath, the murder mystery train ride and gourmet dinner plus a delicious home cooked country breakfast on Sunday morning.

"Last year we were sold out, so reserve ASAP."

On Saturday, April 23, join a group of singles for an interesting evening of fine dining, a la progressive style. You will have the opportunity to meet a different group of interesting new friends each time you change tables between every course of this five course delicious gourmet dinner. Afterwards, put on your dancing shoes. This will be the perfect opportunity for you to get dressed up, look great and have a fun time.
