

GMHA holds annual meeting

The Georgetown Minor Hockey Association (GMHA) held its annual meeting last Tuesday night at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

The meeting, attended by over 70 local residents, included discussions on fundraising, officiating and ice-time. The evening also included the election of Board of Directors.

Returning as President for the 1994-95 season will be Hal Pells, while Jackie Hotham will be Vice-President of Administration and the Vice-President of Rep Hockey will be Carson Mininch.

Making up the rest of the executive will be: Gary Louth (Vice-President, House-League hockey), Bill Maveal (Director of Senior House-League), Donna Martin (Director of Junior House-League), Martin Hardcastle (Director of Senior Rep hockey), Brian James (Director of Junior Rep hockey), Allan Stuttard (Director of Operations), John Henderson (Director of Media/Public Relations), Rick Sedore (Director of Equipment), Dave Martin (Director of Fundraising), Paula Rostrup (Director of Finance), Joanna Alchin (Treasurer), Wendy Goodhew (Secretary).

The GMHA enjoyed great success over the 1993-94 hockey season and featured 850 players representing 56 teams.

Sabres meet

Acton Minor Hockey (OMHA) Sabres will be holding their annual meeting and election of officer today (Sunday) beginning at 2 p.m. at the Acton Community Centre.

All parents, and interested parties, are urged to attend.

One last look...

The ice was removed from the Acton Community Centre last week, just one day after the final Acton House League Hockey game was played. There were plenty of awards handed out during their Day of Champions. Above, a final look at the action for 1993-94. Below right, Ron and Angie Schmidt presented the novice championship trophy to Trevor Hall of Galvcast. Below left, AHHA president John Toebe congratulates Josh Bowen on the Most Valuable Player Award he received for his efforts on behalf of the Acton Legion novices. Georgetown held their 'Day of Champs' on Saturday.
