

King turns soccer opposition Blue

Under 11 Girls

There were no games on April 2nd due to the Easter Break, so the next games were played on April 9th and the Green team and the Sky Blue team met up for a lively game.

It was a scoring race with the Green team coming out ahead with an 8-4 score. Danielle King was hot with 5 goals for the Green team. Lindsay Sproule added a couple with a single contributed by Shaylyn Rypstra. Scorers for Sky Blue were Sinead Irvine with a pair and Rebecca Culp and Melanie Sherren adding singles.

The second game put the Royal team and the Purple Panthers up against each other. This was a close game with the Royal team coming out ahead only by a goal with a 3-2 victory. Alissa Taylor scored twice and Shannon Gray got the other goal for the Royal team. Scorers for the Purple Panthers were Ashley Chapman and Heather Stephens.

The April 16th games were the start of the playoff rounds for this age division. The format is 3 points for a win and only 1 point for a tie. The first game put the Green team and the Royal Blue team up against each other. This game ended up close in a 1-1 tie. Alissa Taylor scored for the Royal Blue team and Danielle King scored for the Green team.

The second game was between the Purple Panthers and the Sky blue team. A close game until the second half when Purple Panthers took a 1-0 lead. Goals on both sides were called back for being in the goal crease and the Purple Panthers hung on for a 1-0 win. Sky Blue then met up with the Royal Blue team and played to a scoreless tie. The leaders so far are the Purple Panthers with 3 points and the only win and Sky, Royal and Green all with 1 points each with ties. The semi-finals are April 23rd (Saturday afternoon) at the Acton High School gym.

Under 15 Girls

On April 9th the Under 15 Girls Indoor Soccer league saw the Purple People Eaters meet with the Royal Blue team for the first game. Purple People Eaters outscored the Royals with a 6-3 win. Stephanie Lefebvre put in 4 goals with Allison Barclay and Brianne Evers-Jordan adding singles.

The second game was between the Green team and the Blue Bombers team. This was a close fought match ending up in a 4-4 tie. Kim Moore got the hat trick for the Blue Bombers team with Jaime Campbell adding a single. Jenny Tremblay scored a pair of goals with Rebecca Leferink and Keri Nielsen adding singles for the Green team.

April 16th began the playoff rounds for this age division. The first game saw the Green team and the Royal Blue team meet up. The Green team came up the winners with a 3-1 score. Rebecca Leferink, Jenny Tremblay and Kristian Zelek were the scorers for Green. Laura Bowman scored the lone marker for the Royal Blue team.

The second game was between the Blue Bombers and the Purple People Eaters. Bombers were with victors with a 3-1 win. Kathy Irvine scored twice and Kim Moore got the other marker for the Blue Bombers. Allison Barclay scored the goal for the Purple People Eaters.

Game three saw the Blue Bombers up against the Royal Blue team. A close fought game until the end with the Royal Blues the winners with a 1-0 score. Jen Royce scored the only goal of the game for the Royal Blue team. Semi-finals next weekend (April 23) at the Acton High School Gym.

Under 17/19 Girls

On April 10th, games in the Under 17/19 Girls indoor soccer put the Green team up against the Purple team. Green team's defense was lacking in a 7-2 romp by the Purple team. Scorers for Purple were Darby Erler with 2 goals and singles by Kate Blyth, Tracy Temple, Cindy Wilson, Lisa Boulanger and Emily Oliver. Both Green team goals were scored by Paula Kennedy.

The second game of the afternoon saw Sky Blue and the Royal Blue team shooting it out to a 5-3 win for the Royal Blue team. Scorers were Marita Lescaik with the hat trick and singles by Louise Hatton and Christine Hohendorf for the Royal team. Sky Blue goals were scored by Jen Apgar with a pair and Amy Sykes with a single marker.

April 17th put the Green team up against the Royal Blue team. Green was out to avenge last week's game and came away the victors 8-3. Scorers for Green were Marci Roy and Paula Kennedy both with hat tricks and the other 2 goals provided by Arin Cook. Royal Blue scorers were Marissa Fread, Jill McMenemy and Louise Hatton.

The second game of the afternoon between the Purple team and the Sky Blue team was cancelled as the power went out at the Georgetown High School.
