

MPP accuses Malcolmson of electioneering

 "The budget does not deal with the fundamental problem and does not give us any momentum. To be truthful, Mr. Laughren has run out of ideas and his government has gone to the cupboard and the cupboard is bare," Malcolmson said, reading from a prepared speech.

Duignan then stood up and said, "This isn't surprising coming from someone who plans to be a candidate for the Tory party in the upcoming election."

After the meeting, Malcolmson wouldn't confirm or deny Duignan's allegations.

"You go and ask our government," he said, indicating Duignan. "They seem to know everything."

Duignan sidestepped the hot seat when he invited Ward to speak at the meeting.

"The request (to speak at the meeting) went to Noel specifically and only to Noel," said Terry Jackson, chamber manager. Duignan told her he would attend, but would only introduce Ward, she said.

Duignan said that Ward has already spoken three or four times in this riding, and made a commitment at a pre-budget meeting in Milton to attend a post-budget meeting here.

"I'll be doing the same thing in the riding," he said, but added he has no presentations lined up yet.

Only about a dozen people were in attendance at the 8:30 a.m. meeting.

"It's not that people don't care, I think that people didn't show up today because we're just waiting for an election," said Chamber of Commerce manager Terry Jackson. There were no new taxes and it was a do-nothing budget, she added.

Business of the Month

The Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce Business of the Month is Mary's Dressmaking and Alterations, located in the Olde Bank, on Main St., Georgetown. Margaret Vint (left) of Georgetown BIA and Gloria Sinclair (right) of The Electrolysis Centre were on hand to congratulate owners Bill and Mary Vassilou as they accepted the sign which will hang in their store for the month of May.
