Local slo-pitch league action heats

The local Georgetown Service Club Slow-Pitch League began action last weekend with some heavy hitters and big runs all part of the season opening weekend at the Fairgrounds.

Kendale MVP Andy Parent threw a shutout over Park as his team won 12-0, while a four-hit performance by Nick Boere led to the Optimist Club's 11-4 victory over Knechtel's.

The Lions Club won 7-0, by default, over Kinsmen.

The Newfoundland Club roughed up the Firemen 12-4, thanks to great defense by Angus Snow and a big home-run by John Wilson.

In the on'y close game of the weekend, Living Lighting edged out the Elks Club 12-11.

Stuart Innes provided some solid defense in the match and three hits by Jim Akers helped the winning crew offensively.

In other action, the S.O.B.'s ran all over Park Lincoln 17-0 with a big homer by Bob Weeks.
