Tipping the teeter totter?

Bob Bairstow, teacher at Harrison School, sat at one end of a teeter-totter Thursday while money collected by Grade 4, Room 12 students for the World Wildlife Federation (WWF), was piled on the other end. The goal was to get Bairstow off the ground, and thanks to the students fundraising efforts they did manage to lift the teacher slightly. Through donations and the sale of popcicles the students collected $270, which will be turned over to the WWF to protect about 12 acres of Canadian rainforest. Pictured from left are Bairstow, student Aleana Atkinson, and Grade 5 teacher John Murphy.
