Raffle prize

Local artist Shirley Brambley (left) recently donated a painting to the Georgetown and District Seniors' Association which will be raffled at the Georgetown Fall Fair in September. Sienna Vanhoekelen, chairperson of the association's fund raising committee accepted the painting from Brambley. Tickets for the draw will be available from various members of the Seniors Association at the annual general meeting on May 26 at Holy Cross auditorium.

Cars collide

Two cars collided in an accident on Main and George Streets Monday at 4 p.m. The Georgetown driver of a 1984 Mercury was heading south on Main St, when according to police, a 1984 Toyota stopped at a sign pulled forward to see if the lane was clear, and was hit by the Mercury. Both drivers and a 3-year-old passenger sustained minor injuries and were treated and released at Georgetown Hospital. The Toyota was severely damaged while the Mercury was moderately damaged. The driver of the Toyota was charged.

Lawn ornament missing?

A resident of Raylawn Cres. woke up Wednesday morning to find several lawn ornaments on his front lawn. Police were notified, and are now asking that anyone who has recently had a lawn ornament stolen should contact them with the details in case it can be returned.

House break-in

A house on Tenth Line was broken into sometime between 10 a.m. and noon Tuesday while the resident was not home. Someone entered through a window with a broken latch and went through the house. A VCR, stereo and speakers and a small amount of cash was taken, but the house was not ransacked, police said. The investigation revealed that a vehicle had backed up to the back of the house.

Dirt bike stolen

A red Honda dirt bike worth about $800 was taken from a garage at a Raylawn Cres. residence sometime between May 12 and 16. Two padlocks were broken off the garage door in order to gain entry, police said.

Bramview Ford Announces
Blue Jays Skybox Winner

Brian Wilson, General Manager, Bramview Ford Sales Ltd., presents John Lenz of Georgetown with 12 Skybox Tickets.

John Lenz of Georgetown recently purchased a new vehicle from Bramview Ford entitling him to enter the "Win a Skybox" contest. John and eleven of his guests will enjoy watching the Jays take on the Chicago White Sox on Sunday, August 21st in the comfort of their own Skybox.

There will be another draw on Thursday, June 9th to win another set of 12 Skybox tickets at Bramview Ford.

Remember, Bramview is the only local Ford dealership to give their customers this kind of opportunity, so come and see why we're tops with our customers.
